PSALMS of DAVID

In M E E T E R.

P S A L M I.

That man nath perfect blessednesse,
 who walked not astray
 In counsell of ungodly man,
 nor stand in sinners way.
 Nor sitteth in the scornors chaire.
 But placeth his delight
 Upon Gods Law, and meditates
 on his Law day and night.
 3 He shall be like a tree that growes
 near planted by a river,
 Which in his season yeelds his fruit,
 and his leaf fadeth never:
 And all he doth shall prosper well,
 that this man takes in hand.
 4 The wicked are unto the chaff
 which wind drives to and fro.
 5 In judgement therefore shall not such as ungodly are, (stand Nor in th' Assembly of the just shall wicked men appeare.
 6 For why? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known:
 Whereas the way of wicked men
 shall quite be overthrowen,

P S A L M I I.

Why rage ye heathen? & vain things:
 why do the people minde?
 2 Kings of the earth do set themselves,
 and Princes are combine
 To plot against the Lord, and his Anointed, saying thus,
 3 Let us assunder break their bands,
 and cast their cords from us.
 4 He that in heaven sits shall laugh:
 the Lord shall scorne them all!
 5 Then shall he speak to them in
 in rage he vex them shall. (wrath, 6 Yet not withstanding I have him
 to be my King appointed:
 And over Sion, my holy hill,
 I have him King anointed,
 7 The sure decree I will declare:
 The Lord hath said to me,
 Thou art my onely Son, this day
 I have begotten thee.
 8 Aske of me, and for heritage
 the heathen I'll make thine,
 And for possession I to thee
 will give earths utmost line.

9 Thou shalt, as with a weightie rod
 of iron; break them all,
 And as a potters sheard thou shalt
 them dash in pieces small.
 10 Now therefore Kings, be wise, be ye judges of the earth. (taught, 11 Serve God in fear, and see that ye joyne trembling with your mirth 12 Kisse ye the Son, lest in his ire
 ye perish from the way,
 If once his wrath begin to burn,
 Blest al that on him stay.

P S A L M I I I.

O Lord, how are my foes increast?
 against me many rise.
 2 Many say of my soul, for him
 in God no succour lies.
 3 Yet thou my shield, and glory art,
 th' uplifter of my head.
 4 I cry'd, and from his holy hill
 the Lord me answer made.
 5 I laid me down, and slept, I wa't
 for God sustained me.
 6 I will not fear though thousands ten,
 set round against me be.
 7 Arise, O Lord, save me, my God!
 for thou my foes hast stroke
 All on the cheek-bone: and the teeth
 of wicked men hast broke.
 8 Salvation doth appertain,
 upon the Lord alone:
 Thy blessing, Lord, for ever more thy people is upon.

P S A L M I V.

Give eare unto me when I call
 God of my righteousness:
 Have mercy, hear my pray'r, thou hast
 enlarg'd me in distress.
 2 O ye the sons of men how long will ye love vanities?
 How long my glory turn to shame,
 and will ye follow lies?
 3 But know that for himself the Lord
 the godly man doth chuse;
 The Lord when I on him do call,
 to hear will not refuse.
 4 Fear, and sin not, talk with your on bed, and silent be. (heart 5 Offerings present of righteousness and in the Lord trust ye.

6 O who will show us any good?
 is that which many say:
For of thy countenance the light,
 Lord, lift on us alway.
7 Upon my heart, bestow'd by thee
 more goodnesse I have found,
Then they ev'n then, when corn and did most with them abound. (wine) 8 I will both lay me down in peace,
 and quiet sleep will I take;
Because thou onely me to dwell
 in safety, Lord, dost make.

PSALM V.

Give eare unto my words, O Lord,
 my meditation weigh.
2 Hear my loud cry, my King, my
 for I to thee will pray. (God,
3 Lord, thou shalt early hear my voyce;
 I early will direct
My pray'r to thee, and looking up an answer will expect.
4 For thou art not a God that doth
 in wickednesse delight;
Neither shall evill dwell with thee,
5 Nor fools stand to thy sight.
All that ill-doers are thou hat'st.
6 Cut'st off that liars be;
The bloody and deceitfull man
 p'horred is by thee.
7 But I unto my house will come,
 in thine abundant grace;
And I will worship in thy fear toward thy holy place.
8 Because of those mine enemies,
 Lord, in thy righteousness
Do thou me lead, do thou thy way
 make straight before my face.
9 For in their mouth there is no truth,
 their inward part is ill;
Their throats is an open sepulchre,
 their tongue doth flatter still.
10 O God destroy them; let them be
 by their own counsel quell'd;
Them for their many sin cast out,
 for they gainst thee rebell'd.
11 But let all joy that trust in thee;
 and still make shouting noise;
For them thou sav'st; Let all that love
 thy Name in thee rejoyce.
12 For, Lord unto the righteous man,
 thou wilt thy blessing yeeld;
With favour thou wilt compass him
 about, as with a shield.

PSALM VI.

I Ord in thy wrath rebuke me not,
 Nor in thy hot rage chasten me.
2 Lord pities me, for I am weak;

Heal me, for my bones vexed be.
3 My soul is also vexed sore; (make?)
But, Lord how long stay wilt thou
4 Return, O Lord, my soul set free;
O save me for thy mercies sake.
5 Because those that deceased are,
O thee shall no remembrance have;
And who is he that will to thee
 Give praises lying in the grave?
6 I with my groaning weary am,
 I also all the night, my bed
 Have caus'd for to swim, and I
 With tears my couch have watered.
7 Mine eye consum'd with grief, grows
 Because of all mine enemies. (old 8 Hence from me wicked workers all,
 For God hath heard my weeping cries.
9 God hath my supplication heard;
 My pray'r received graciously. (foes,
10 Sham'd, and sore vex'd be all my Sham'd, and back-turned suddenly.

Another of the same.

I N thy great indignation,
 O Lord, rebuke me not;
Nor on me lay thy chastening hand
 in thy displeasure hot.
2 Lord, I am weak, therefore on me
 have mercy, and me spare;
Heal me, O Lord, because thou know'st
 my bones much vexed are.
3 My soul is vexed sore; but Lord,
 how long stay wilt thou make?
4 Return Lord, free my soul and save me for thy mercies sake.
5 Because of thee in death there shall no more remembrance be;
O those that in the grave do lie,
 who shall give thanks to thee?
6 I with my groaning weary am,
 and all the night my bed
 I caus'd for to swim; with tears
 my couch I watered.
7 By reason of my vexing grief,
 mine eye consumed is;
It waxeth old, because of all
 that be mine enemies.
8 But now depart from me all ye that work iniquity; (voice,
For why? the Lord hath heard my
 when I did mourn and cry.
9 Unto my supplication
 the Lord did hearing give;
When I to him my prayer make,
 the Lord will it receive.
10 Let all be sham'd, & troubled sore,
 that enemies are to me;
Let them turn back, and suddenly ashamed let them be.

PSALM VII. VIII. IX.

PSALM VII.

O Lord my God, in thee doe I
my confidence repose;
Save and deliver me from all
my persecuting foes.
1 Left that the enemy my soul
should like an lion tear,
In pieces renting it, while there is no deliverer.
3 O Lord my God, if it be so that I committed this;
If it be so, that in my hands
iniquity there is;
4 If I rewarded ill to him
that was at peace with me, (Yea, ev'n the man that without cause,
my foe was, I did free)
5 Then let the foe pursue, and take my soul and my life thrust Down to the earth, and let him lay mine honour in the dust.
6 Rise in thy wrath, Lord raise thy for my foes raging be: (self,
And to the judgement, which thou hast commanded, wake for me.
7 So shall th' Assembly of thy folk about encompass thee:
Thou therefore for their sakes, return
unto thy place on hie 8 The Lord he shall the people judge;
why judge, Jehovah, be,
After my righteousness, and mine
integrity in me.
9 O let the wicked malice end,
but stablish steadfastly
The righteous: for the righteous God
the heart and reins doth try.
10 In God who saves th' upright in is my defence and stay. (heart, 11 God just men judgeth, God is wroth
with all men every day 12 If hee doe not return again,
then he his sword will whet,
His bow he hath already bent,
and hath it ready set.
13 He also hath for him prepar'd
the instruments of death;
Against the persecuters he his shafts ordained hath.
14 Behold, he with iniquity
doth travail as in birth;
A mischief he conceived hath,
and falsehood shall bring forth.
15 He made a pit, and digg'd it deep,
another there to take,
But he is fallen in to the ditch
which he himself did make.
16 Upon his own head, his mischief

shall be returned home;
His violent dealing also down
on his own place shall come.
17 According to his righteousness
the Lord I'll magnifie;
And will sing praises unto the Name
of God, that is most hie.

PSALM VIII.

How excellent in all the earth,
Lord, our Lord, is thy Name?
Who hath thy glory for advanc'd
about the starry frame
1 From infants & from sucklings
thou didest streng'h ordain. (mouth
For thy foes cause, that to thou might'st
th' avenging foe restrain.
3 When I look up unto the heavens,
with thine own fingers fram'd,
Unto the moon, and on the stars,
which were by thee ordain'd;
4 Then say I, what is man that he remembered is by thee?
Or what the son of man, that thou
so kinde to him should be?
5 For thou a little lower hast
him then the angels made,
With glory and with dignitie
thou crownest hast his head.
6 Of thy hard-works, thou mad'st him
all under's feet didst lay; (Lord;
7 As sheep and oxen, yea and beasts
that in the field do stray;
8 Fowls of the air, fish of the sea,
all that passe through the same,
9 How excellent in all the earth,
Lord, our Lord, is thy Name!

PSALM IX.

Lord, thee I'll praise with all my
the wonders all proclaime (hears 1 In thee most High I'll greatly joy,
and sing unto thy Name
3 When back my foes were turn'd
and perisht at thy sight, they fell.
4 For thou maintain'd my right &
on throne sat'st judging right. (cause 5 The heathen thou rebuked hast,
the wicked overthrow'n;
Thou hast put out the names that may never more be known. (they 6 O enemy! now destruction, have an end perpetuall:
Thou cities raz'd perisht with them
in their memoriall.
7 God shall endure for ay, he doth
for judgement set his throne;
8 In righteousness to judge y world,
justiceto give each one.

9 God will also a refuge be
for those that are oppress,
A refuge will he be in times
of trouble to distress.
10 And they that know thy Name, in their confidence will place; (these For thou hast not forsaken them
that truly seek thy face.
11 O sing ye praises to the Lord,
that dwells in Sion hill;
And all the nations among his deeds record ye still 12 When he enquireth after blood;
he then remembreth them:
The humble folk he not forgets,
that call upon his Name.
13 Lord put me, behold the grief,
which I from foes sustain.
Ev'n thou who from the gates of death
doth raise me up again, 14 That I, in Sions daughters gates,
may all thy praise advance,
And that I may rejoyce alwayes
in thy deliverance.
15 The heathen are sunk in the pit,
which they themselves prepar'd.
And in the net which they have hid
their own feet fast are snar'd.
16 The Lord is by thy judgment known
which he himself hath wrought,
The sinners hands do make the snares,
where with themselves are taught.
17 They, who are wicked into hell,
each one shall turned be,
And all the nations that forget
to seek the Lord must lie.
18 For they that needy are, shall not forgotten be alway:
The expectation of the poor
shall not be lost for aye.
19 Arise, Lord, let no men prevail,
judge heathens in thy sight.
20 That they may know themselves
the nations Lord, affright. (but men,

P S A L M X.

Wherefore it is, that thou, O Lord,
doth stand from us afar?
And wherefore hidest thou thy selfe,
when times so troublous are?
1 The wicked in his loftnesse,
doth persecute the poor:
In these devices they have fram'd
let them be taken sure.
2 The wicked of his hearts desire doth talk with boasting great;
He bleisseth him that's covetous,
whom yet the Lord doth hate.
3 The wicked through his pride of
on God he doth not call: (face,

And in the counsels of his heart
The Lord is not at all.
4 His wayes at all times grievous are;
thy judgement from his sight;
Removed are: at all his foes
he puffeth with despight.
5 Within his heart he thus hath said,
I shall not moved be:
And no adversary at all
shall ever come to me.
6 His mouth with cursing, fraud,
is fill'd abundantly: (deceit,
And underneath his tongue, there is mischief and vanity.
7 He closely sits in villages:
he slayes the innocent:
Against the poor that passe him by his cruell eyes are bent.
8 Helyon like lurks in his den:
he waits the poor to take:
And when he drawes him in his net,
his prey he doth him make.
9 Himself he humbleth very low,
he crougeth down withall,
That so a multitude of poor
may by his strong ones fall.
10 He this hath said within his heart,
the Lord hath quite forgot:
He hides his countenance and he
for ever fees is not.
11 O Lord, do thou arise: O God,
lift up thine hand on him:
Put not the meek afflicted ones
out of thy memorie.
12 Why is it that the wicked man
thus doth the Lord despise?
Because that God will it require,
he in his heart denies.
13 Thou hast it seen for their mischief
and spite thou wilt repay;
The poor commit themselves to thee,
thou art the orphans stay.
14 The arme break of the wicked
and of the evill one; (man,
Do thou seek out his wickednesse
untill thou find it none.
15 The Lord is King through ages all,
ev'n to eternity;
The heathen people from their land
are perisht utterly.
16 O Lord, of those that humble are thou the desire didst hear:
Thou wilt prepare their heart, & thou
to hear will bend thine eare; 17 To judge the fatherlesse, and those that are oppressed fore.
That man, that is but sprung of earth,
may them oppress no more.

PSALM XI.

IN the Lord do I put my trust;
how is it then that ye say to my soul, flee as a bird unto your mountain hie?
2 For lo, the wicked bend their bow,
their shafts on firing they fit,
That those who upright are in heart
they privily may hit.
3 If the foundation be destroy'd,
what hath the righteous done?
4 God in his holy Temple is,
in heaven is his throne:
His eyes do see, his eye-lids try 5 Mens sons. The just he proves:
But his soul hates the wicked man,
and him that violence loves.
6 Snares, fire & brimstone, furious
on sinners he shall rain; storms
This, as the portion of their cup, doth unto them pertain.
7 Because the Lord most righteous in righteousness delight. (doth
And with a pleasant countenance
beholdeth the upright.

PSALM XII.

Help Lord, because the godly man
doth dayly fade away;
And from among the sons of men
the faithfull to decay.
1 Unto his neighbour every one doth utter vanitie:
They with a double heart do speak,
and lips of flatterie.
3 God shall cut off all flattering lips,
tongues that speak proudly thus.
4 Wee'll w our tongue prevail, our lips
are ours; who's Lord ov'r us?
5 For pour oppress, and for the sight
of needy rife will I, Saith God, and him in safety set
from such as him defy.
6 The words of God are words most they be like silver try'd (pure,
In earthen furnace seven times
that hath been purify'd.
7 Lord thou shalt them preserve & forever, from this race. (keep 8 On each side walk the wicked, when vile men are high in place.

PSALM XIII.

How long wilt thou forget me Lord,
shall it for ever be?
O how long shall it be, that thou
will hide thy face from me?
2 How long take counsell in my soul,
shall said in heart, shall I?

How long exalted over me
shall be mine enemy?

3 O Lord my God, consider well,
and answer to me make:
Mine eyes enlighten, lest the sleep
of death me overtake.
4 Lest that mine enemy should say against him I prevail'd;
And those that trouble me rejoyce
when I am mov'd and fall'd.
5 But I have all my confidence
thy mercy set upon:
My heart within me shall rejoyce
in thy salvation.
6 I will unto the Lord my God
sing praises cheerfully,
Because he hath his bounty shown to me abundantly.

PSALM XIV.

That there is not a God, the fool
doth in his heart conclude:
They are corrupt, their works are vile,
not one of them doth good.
2 Upon mens sons the Lord from did cast his eyes abroad: (heaven
To see if any understood,
and did seek after God.
3 They altogether filthy are,
they all aside are gone:
And there is none that doeth good,
yea, sure there is not one.
4 Those workers of iniquity
do they not know at all,
That they my people at as bread,
and on God do not call?
5 There fear'd they much for God is the whole race of the just. (with 6 You shame the counsell of the poor,
because God is his trust.
7 Let Israels help from Sion come
when back the Lord shall bring,
His captives, Jacob shall rejoyce
and Israel shall sing.

PSALM XV.

Within thy tabernacle Lord,
who shall abide with thee?
And in thy high and holy hill
who shall a dweller be?
1 The man that walketh uprightly,
and worketh righteousness,
And as he thinketh in his heart,
so doth the truth expresse.
3 Who doth not slander with his nor to his friend doth hurt (tongue, Nor yet against his neighbour doth take up an ill report.
4 In whose eye, vile men are despis'd
but those that God do fear,

He honoureth, and changeth not,
though to his hurt he swear.
His corne puts not to usury,
nor take reward will he Against the guiltlesse. Who doth thus shall never moved be.

PSALM XVI.

LOrd, keep me: for I trust in thee.
1 To God thus was my speech,
Thou art my Lord, and unto thee
my goodnesse doth not reach:
2 To saints on earth, to th'excellent
where my delight's all plac't.
3 Their sorrows shall be multipli'd,
to other gods that haste;
Of their drink-offering of blood
I will no offering make,
Yea, neither I their very names
up in my lips will take.
4 God is of mine inheritance
and cup the portion:
The lot that fallen is to me,
thou dost maintain alone.
5 Unto me happily the lines
in pleasant places fell;
Yea, the inheritance I got,
in beauty doth excell.
6 I blesse the Lord, because he doth
by counsell me conduct:
And in the seasons of the night,
my reins do me instruct.
7 Before me still the Lord I set, sith it is so, that he Doth ever stand at my right hand,
I shall not moved be.
8 Because of this my heart is glad,
and joy shall be exprest,
Ev'n by my glory: and my flesh
in confidence shall rest.
9 Because my soul in grave to dwell,
shall not be left by thee;
Nor wilt thou give thine holy One corruption to see.
10 Thou wilt me shew y path of life:
of joy there is full store
Before thy face, at thy right hand
are pleasures evermore.

PSALM XVII.

LOrd, hear the right, attend my cry,
unto my pray'r give heed,
That doth not in hypocrisie
from feigned lips proceed.
2 And from before thy presence forth,
my sentence do thou send:
Toward these things that equall are,
do thou thine eyes intend.
3 Thou prov'dst mine heart, thou visit
by night, thou didst me try. (test me

Yet nothing found'st; for that my shall not sin purposely. [mouth

4 As for mens works, by the word
that from my lips doth flow, Did me perceive out of the paths
wherein destroyers goe.
5 Hold up my goings, Lord me guid
in those thy paths divine,
So that my foot'steps may not slide
out of these wayes of thine.
6 I called have on thee, O God,
because thou wilt me hear;

in thy wings shade me close.
9 From lewd oppressours compassing
me round, as deadly foes.
10 In their own fat they are inclos'd;
their mouths speaks loftily.
11 Our steps they compass; and to down bowing set their eye. (ground 12 He like unto a lion is, that's greedy of his prey,
Or lion young, which lurking doth
in secret places stay, 13 Arise, and disappoint my foe,
and cast him down, O Lord;
My soul save from the wicked man,
the man which is thy sword.
14 From men which are thy hand, O
from worldly men me save. [Lord,
Which only in their present life
their part and portion have;
Whose belly with thy treasure hid thou fill'st, their children have In plentie of their goods the rest
they to their children leave.
15 But as for me, I thine own face
in righteousnesse will see;
And with thy likeness, when I wake,
I satisf'd shall be.

PSALM XVIII.

THee will I love, O Lord, my strength,
2 My fortresse is the Lord,
My rock, and he that do me
deliverance afford;
My God, my strength, whom I will
a buckler unto me, (trust,
The horn of my salvation,
and my high tow'r is he.
3 Unto the Lord, who worthy is of praises, will I cry;
And then shall I preserved be safe from mine enemy.

4 Floods of ill men affrighted me,
deaths pangs about me went.
5 Hells sorrows me environed;
deaths snares did my prevent.
6 In my distresse I call'd on God,
cry to my God did I;
He from his Temple heard my voyce,
to his ears came my cry.
7 Th'earth, as affrighted, then did trembling upon it seised: [shake,
The hills foundations moved were,
because he was displeased.
8 Up from his nostrils came a smoke,
and from his mouth there came Devouring fire, and coals by it where turned into flame.
9 He also bowed down the heavens,
and thence he did defend;
And thickest clouds of darknesse did under his feet attend.
10 And he upon a cherub rode,
and thereon he did fly;
Yea, on the swift wings of the winde
his flight was from on bie.
11 He darknesse made his secret place,
about him for his tent.
Dark waters were and thickest clouds
of th'airie Firmament.
12 And of the brightnesse of that light
which was before his eye.
His thick clouds past away hail-stones
and coals of fire did fly.
13 The Lord God also in the heavens,
did thunder in his ire,
And there the Highest gave his voyce,
hail-stones and coals of fire.
14 Yea, he his arrows sent abroad,
and them he scattered;
His lightnings also he shut out,
and them discomfited.
15 The waters chanel, then were seen,
the worlds foundation fast
At thy rebuke discovered were,
and at thy nostrils blast.
16 And from above y Lord sent down,
and took me from below,
From many waters he me drew,
which would me overflow.
17 He me reliev'd from my strong and such as did me hate; (feet,
Because he saw that they for me
too strong were, and too great.
18 They me prevented in the day
of my calamitie;
But even then the Lord himself
a stay was unto me.
19 He, to a place where libertie
and room was, hast me brought;

Because he took delight in me,
he my deliverance wrought.
20 According to my righteousness
he did me recompense,
He me repay'd according to my hands pure innocence.
21 For I Gods wayes kept from my did not turn wickedly; (God 22 His judgement were before me, I his lawes put not from me.
23 Sincere before him was my heart,
with him upright was I;
And watchfully I kept my self from mine iniquity.
24 After my righteousness the Lord
hath recompensed me,
After the cleanness of my hands
appearing to his eye.
25 Thou gracious to the gracious art,
to upright men upright.
26 Pure to y pure toward thou kythes
unto the froward wight.
27 For thou wilt the afflicted save,
in grief that low doly;
But wilt bring down the countenance
of them whose looks are hy.
28 The Lord will light my candle so,
that it shall shine full bright;
The Lord my God will also make my darknesse to be light.
29 By thee through troups of men I and them discomfit all; (break
And by my God assisting me,
I overleap a wall.
30 As for God perfect is his way;
the Lord his word is try'd;
He is a buckler to all those who do on him confide.
31 Who but the Lord is God? but he who is a rock and stay?
32 It's God that girdeth me w strength,
and perfect makes my way.
33 He made my feet swift as y hinds
set me on my high places.
34 Mine hands to war he taught, mine brake bows of steel in pieces. (arms 35 The shield of thy salvation
thou didst on me bestow;
Thy right hand help me up, and great
thy kindnesse made me grow.
36 And in my way, my steps thou hast enlarged under me,
That I go safely, and my feet
are kept from sliding free.
37 Mine enemies I pursued have,
and did them overtake,
Nor did I turn again, till I an end of them did make.

18 I wounded them they could not rise;
 they at my tent did fall. (war;
 19 Thou girded me with strength for my foes thou brought down all.
 20 And thou hast giv'n to me 7 necks
 of all mine enemies;
 That I might them destroy and slay
 whodid against me rise. (none 21 They cryed out, but there was that would or could them save?
 Yea, they did cry unto the Lord,
 but he no answer gave.
 22 Then did I beat them small as dust
 before the winde that flies;
 And they did cast them out like dirt
 upon the streets that lies.
 23 Thou mad'st me free from peoples and heathens head to be; (strife
 A people whom I have not known,
 shall service do to me.
 24 At hearing they shall my obey,
 to me they shall submit.
 25 Strangers for fear shall fade away,
 who in close places sit.
 26 God lives, blest be my rock, 7 God
 of my health praised be.
 27 God doth avenge mee, and subdues
 the people under me.
 28 He save me from mine enemies;
 yea, thou hast lifted me
 Above my foes, and from the man of violence, settst me free.
 29 Therefore to thee will I give the heathen folk among; (thanks
 And to thy Name, O Lord, I will sing praises in a song.
 30 He great deliverance gives his his mercy doth extend (King,
 To David, his anointed One,
 and his seed without end.

PSALM XIX.

THe heav'ns Gods glory do declare,
 the skyes his hand-works preach.
 2 Day utters speech to day, and night
 to night doth knowledge teach.
 3 There is no speech nor tongue to their voyce doth not extend (which 4 Their line is gone through all 7 earth,
 their words to the worlds end.
 In them he set the sun a tent,
 5 Who bridegroom like forth goes From's chamber, as a strong man
 to run his race rejoyce. (doth, 6 From heav'ns end is his going forth,
 circling to th'end again.
 And there is nothing from his heat
 that hidden doth remain.
 7 Gods law is perfect, and converts,
 the soul in sin that lies:

Gods testimony is most sure,
 and make the simple wise.
 8 The statutes of the Lord are right,
 and do rejoyce the heart
 The Lords command is pure, and doth light to the eyes impart.
 9 Unspotted is the fear of God,
 and doth endure for ever:
 The judgement of the Lord are true,
 and righteous altogether.
 10 They more then gold, yea, much fine
 to be desired are, (gold,
 Then hony, from the hony-combe
 that droppeth sweeter far.
 11 Moreover, they thy servant warn how he his life should frame;
 A great reward provided is for them that keep the same.
 12 Who can his errors understand?
 O cleanse thou me within 13 From secret faults. Thy servant from the presumptuous sin, (keep
 And do not suffer them to have dominion over me:
 Then righteous and innocent
 I from much sin shall be. (proceed 14 The words which from my mouth
 the thoughts sent from my heart, Accept, O Lord, for thou my strength and my redeemer art.

PSALM XX.

Jehovah hear thee in the day
 when trouble he doth send.
 And let the Name of Jacobs God
 thee from all ill defend.
 2 O let him help send from above,
 out of his sanctuary:
 From Sion his own holy hill
 let him give strength to thee.
 3 Let him remember all thy gifts accept thy sacrifice. (sh
 4 Grant them thine hearts wish, & ful-thy thoughts and counsell wise.
 5 In thy salvation we will joy:
 in our Gods Name we will Display our banners, and the Lord thy prayers all fulfill 6 Now know I, God his king doth
 he from his holy heaven (save:
 Will hear him with the saving strength
 by his right hand that's given.
 7 In chariot, some put confidence,
 some horses trust upon:
 But we remember will the Name
 of our Lord God alone.
 8 We rise, & upright stand when they are bowed down and fall.
 9 Deliver, Lord, and let the king us hear, when we do call.

PSALM XXI.

THe king in thy great strength, O shall very joyfull be, (Lord,
In thy salvation rejoyce

how vehemently shall he !
a Thou hast bestowed upon him
all that his heart would have,
And thou from him didst not behold
what e'er his lips did crave.

3 For thou with blessings him prevent'st
Of goodnesse manifold :
And thou hast set upon his head
a crown of purest gold.

4 When he desired life of thee,
thou life to him didst give :
Ev'n such a length of dayes, that he
for evermore should live.

5 In that salvation wrought by thee,
his glory is made great.
Honour and comly majesty
thou hast upon him set.

6 Because that thou for evermore
most blessed hast him made ;
And thou hast with thy countenance
made him exceeding glad :

7 Because the king upon the Lord
his confidence doth lay.
And through thy grace of the most High
shal not be mov'd away.

8 Thine hand shall all those men find that enemies are to thee, (out, Ev'n thy right hand shall find out those of thee that haters be.

9 Like fier y ov'n thou shalt them
when kindled is thine ire : (make,
God shall them swallow in his wrath,
devour them shall the fire.

10 Their fruit from earth thou shalt their seed men from among. (destroy.

11 For they beyond their might, gainst
did plot mischief & wrong. (thee

12 Thou therefore shalt make them [turn back,
when thou thy shafts shalt place Upon my strings, made ready all to flie against their face.

13 In thy great power & strength, O be thou exalted hie : (Lord,
So shall we sing with joyfull hearts
thy power prayse shall we.

PSALM XXII.

MY God, my God, why hast thou me forsaken ? why so far Art thou from helping me and from my word : that roaring are ?

2 All day, my God, to thee I cry,
yet am not heard by thee :

And in the season of the night
I cannot silent be.

3 But thou art holy, thou that dost inhabit Israels praise.

4 Our fathers hop'd in thee they hop'd,
and thou didst them release.

5 When unto thee they sent their cry,
to them deliverance came :
Because they put their trust in thee,
they were not put to shame.

6 But as for me, a worm I am,
and as no man am pris'd :
Reproch of men I am, and by the people am dispis'd.

7 All that me seelaugh me to scorn,
shoot out the lip do they,
They nod and shake their heads at me,
and mocking thus do say :

8 This man did trust in God that he would free him by his might Let him deliver him sith he had in him such delight.

9 But thou art he out of the womb,
that didst me safely take :
When I was on my mothers breast,
thou me to hope didst make.

10 And I was cast upon thy care:
ev'n from the womb till now ;
And from my mothers belly, Lord,
my God, and guid art thou.

11 Be not far off, for grief is neer,
and none to help is found.

12 Bulls many compasse me, strong of Bashan me surround. (bulls

13 Their mouths they op'ned wide upon me gape did they, (on me,
Like to a lion ravening
and roaring for his prey.

14 Like water I am pour'd out, my all out of joynt do part (bones
Amidst my bowels as the wax,
so melted is my heart. - [dried;

15 My strength is like a potsherd
my tongue it cleaveth fast Unto my joynt, and to the dust
of death thou brought me hast.

16 For dogs have compass me about the wicked that did meet
In their assembly, me inclosed,
thy pierc'd my hand and feet.

17 I all my bones may tell, they do upon me look and stare.

18 Upon my vesture lots they cast,
and cloathes among them share.
19 But be not far, O Lord my strength,
haste to give help to me.

20 From sword my soul, from pow'r
my darling set thou free. (of dogs

21 Out of the roaring lions mouth
do thou me shield and save ;

For

12 PSALM XXXIII. XXXIV. XXXV.
 For from the horns of unicorne
 an ear to me thou gave.
 23 I will shew forth thy Name unto those that my brethren are ;
 Amidst the congregation
 thy praise I will declare.

23 Praise ye the Lord, who do him
 him glorifie, all ye [feare,
 The seed of Jacob, for him all that Isra'els children be.
 24 For he despis'd not, nor abhor'd
 th'afflicteds misery :
 Nor from him hid his face, but heard
 when he to him did cry.

25 Within the congregation great
 my praise shall be of thee ;
 My vows before them that him fear ;
 shall be perform'd by me.

26 The meek shall eat & shall be fill'd,
 they also praise shall give Unto the Lord that do him seek your heart shall ever live.

27 All ends of th'earth remember and turn the Lord unto : [shall,
 All kindreds of the nations
 to him shall homage do.

28 Because the kingdom to the Lord
 doth appertain as his :
 Likewise among the nations
 the governour he is.

29 Earths fat ones eat and worship
 all who to dust descend [shall,
 Shall bowe to him, none of them can his soul from death defend.

30 A seed shall service do to him, unto the Lord it shall Before a generation
 reckned in ages all. [clare

31 They shall come, & they shall de-his truth and righteousness Unto a people yet unborn,
 and that he hath done this.

PSALM XXXIII.
THe Lord's my shepherd, I'll not
 1 He makes me down to ly (want,
 In pastures green ; he leadeth me
 the quiet waters by.

3 My soul he doth restore again :
 and me to walk doth make
 Into the paths of righteousness,
 ev'n for his own Names sake

4 Yet though I walk in death dark yet will I fear none ill : [vale,
 For thou art with me, and thy rod and staff me comfort still.

5 My table thou hast furnished
 in presence of my foes :

My head thou dost with oyl anoint,
 and my cup overflows.
 6 Goodnesse and mercy all my life,
 shall surely follow me :
 And in Gods house for evermore
 my dwelling-place shall be.

PSALM XXXIV.
THe earth belongs unto the Lord,
 and all that it contains :
 The world that is inhabited,
 and all that there remains.

1 For the foundation thereof
 he on the seas did lay,
 And he hath it established
 upon the floods to stay.

3 Who is the man that shall ascend
 into the hill of God ?
 Or who within his holy place
 shall have a firm abode ?

4 Whose hands are clean, whose heart
 and unto vanity [is pure,
 Who hath not lifted up his soul,
 nor sworn deceitfully.

5 He from th'Eternall shall receive
 the blessing him upon,
 And righteousness, ev'n from the God
 of his salvation.

6 This is the generation
 that after him inquire,
 O Jacob, who do seek the face
 with their whole hearts desire.

7 Ye gates lift up your heads on high,
 ye doors that last for ay
 Be lifted up, that so the King
 of glory enter may.

8 But who of glory is the King ?
 the mighty Lord is this Ev'n that same Lord that great in and strong in battell is. [might,

9 Ye gates lift up your horns, ye doors that do last for ay [doors,
 Be lifted up, that so the King
 of glory enter may.

10 But who is he that is the King of glory ? who is this ?
 The Lord of hosts, and none but He
 the King of glory is.

PSALM XXXV.
TO thee I lift my soul :
 1 O Lord, I trust in thee,
 My God, let me not be atham'd,
 nor foes triumph ov'r me.

3 Let none that wait on thee,
 be put to shame at all :
 But those that without cause trans-
 let shame upon them fall. [grosse

4 Shew me thy wayes, O Lord, thy paths, O teach thou me.

5 And

PSALM XXXV.

And do thou lead me in thy truth,
therein my teacher be :
For thou art God that dost
to me salvation send,
And I upon thee all the day
expecting do attend.
6 Thy tender mercies, Lord,
I pray thee to remember,
And loving kindnesse; for they
have been of old for ever.
7 My sins and faults of youth
do thou, O Lord, forget :
After thy mercie think on me,
and for thy goodnesse great.
8 God good and upright is :
thy way hee'l sinners show.
9 The meek in judgement he will
and make his path to know. [guide, 10 The whole paths of the Lord
are truth and mercy sure
To those that do his covenant keep,
and testimonies pure.
11 Now for thine own Names sake,
O Lord, I thee intreat
To pardon mine iniquitie;
for it is very great.
12 What man is he that fears
the Lord, that doth him serve ?
Him shall he teach the way that he shall choose and still observe.
13 His soul shall dwell at ease :
and his posterity
Shall flourish still, and of the earth
inheritours shall be.
14 With those that fear him, is the secret of the Lord :
The knowledge of his covenant
he will to them afford.
15 Mine eyes upon the Lord
continually are set :
For it is he that shall bring forth
my feet out of the net.
16 Turn unto me thy face,
and to me mercy show :
Because that I am desolate,
and am brought very low.
17 My hearts griefs are increas'd :
me from distresse relieve.
18 See mine affliction and my pain,
and all my sins forgive.
19 Consider thou my foes,
because they many are.
And it a cruell hatred is,
which they against me beare :
10 O do thou keep my soul,
do thou deliver me,
And let me never be asham'd,
because I trust in thee.
21 Let uprightnesse and truth
keep me, who thee attend,

21 Redemption, Lord, to Israel
from all his trouble send.

Answer of the same.

TO thee I lift my soul, O Lord
2 My God, I trust in thee :
Let me not be asham'd : Let not
my foes triumph ov'r me, 3 Yea, let them not ashamed be
that do on thee attend :
Ashamed let them be, O Lord,
who without cause offend. [patha,
4 Thy wayes, Lord, shew teach me thy 5 Lead me in truth teach me :
For of my safety thou art God,
all day I wait on thee.
6 Thy mercies that most tender are,
do thou, O Lord, remember,
And loving kindnesse: for they
have been of old for ever.
7 Let not the errors of my youth,
nor sins rememb'd be :
In mercie, for thy goodnesse sake,
O Lord, remember me.
8 The Lord is good and gracious,
He upright is also :
He therefore sinners will instruct in wayes that they should go.
9 The meek and lowly he will guide
in judgements just alway :
To meek and poor afflicted ones
hee'l clearly teach his way.
10 The whole paths of the Lord our are truth and mercy sure, [God
To such as keep his covenant,
and testimonies pure.
11 Now for thine own Names sake, O
I humblie thy intreat [Lord,
To pardon mine iniquitie :
for it is very great.
12 When man fears God: him shall he
the way he shall choose. [teach 13 His soul shall dwell at ease, his seed
the earth as heirs shall use.
14 The secret of the Lord is with such as do fear his Name,
And he his holy covenant
will manifest to them.
15 Towards the Lord my waiting eyes
continually are set :
For he it is that shall bring forth
my feet out of the net.
16 O turn thee unto me, O God,
have mercy me upon :
Because I solitary am,
and in affliction.
17 Enlarg'd my griefs are of my heav
me from distresse relieve.
18 See mine affliction and my pain,
and all my sins forgive.

14 PSALM XXVI. XXVII. XXVIII.

19 Consider thou mine enemies,
because they many are,
And it a cruell hatred is,
which they against me beare.
20 O do thou keep my soul, O God,
do thou deliver me:
Let me not be asham'd, for I do put my trust in thee.
21 O let integrity and truth
keep me, who thee attend.
22 Redemption, Lord, to Israel
from all his troubles send.

PSALM XXVI.

Judge me, O Lord, for I have walkt
in mine integrity:
I trusted also in the Lord:
side therefore shall not I.
2 Examine me, and do me prove:
my heart, and reins, O God.
3 For thy love is before mine eyes,
thy truths paths I have trod.
4 With persons vain I have not sat,
nor with dissemblers gone.
5 Th'assembly of ill men I hate:
to sit with such I shun.
6 Mine hands in innocence, O Lord,
I'll wash and purify:
So to thine holy altar go
and compasse it will I.
7 That I, with voyce of thanksgiving,
may publish and declare,
And tell of all thy mighty works,
that great and wondrous are,
8 The habitation of thy house,
Lord, I have loved well
Yea, in that place I do delight,
where doth thine honour dwell,
9 With sinners gather not my soul,
and such as blood would spill:
10 Whose hands mischievous plots,
corrupting bribes to fill [right hand 11 But as for me, I will walk on
in mine integrity:
Do thou redeem me: and, O Lord,
be mercifull to me.
12 My foot upon an even place
doth stand with stedfastnesse:
Within the congregation
th'Eternall I will blesse.

PSALM XXVII.

The Lord's my light, & saving health,
who shall make me dismayd?
My life, strength is the Lord, of whom
then shall I be afraid.
2 When as mine enemies and foes,
most wicked persons all,
To eat my flesh against me rose
they stumbled and did fall.

3 Against me though an host encamp;
my hears yet fearlesse is:
Though war against me rise, I will be confident to this.
4 One thing I of the Lord desir'd,
and will seek to obtain,
That all dayes of my life I may within Gods house remain.
That I the beauty of the Lord
behold may and admire,
And that I in his holy place
may reverently enquire.
5 For he in his pavilion shall
me hide in evill dayes:
In secret of his Tent me hide,
and on a rock me raise.
6 And now, ev'n at this present time
mine head shall lifted be Above all those that be my foes,
and round encompassse me:
Therefore unto his tabernacle
I'll sacrifices bring.
Of joyfulness I'll sing, yea, I
to God will praises sing.
7 O Lord, give eare unto my voyce,
when I do cry to thee:
Upon me also mercy have,
and do thou answer me.
8 When thou didst say seek ye my face,
then unto thee reply.
Thus did my heart above all things
thy face, Lord seek will I.
9 Far from me hide not thou thy put not away from thee [face.
Thy servant in thy wrath: thou hast
an helper been to me:
O God of my salvation,
leave me not, nor forsake.
10 Though me my parents both should
the Lord will me uptake [leave.
11 O Lord, instruct me in thy way,
to me a leader be
In a plain path, because of those that hatred beare to me.
12 Give me not to mine enemies will,
for witnesses, that he,
Against me risen are and such as breath our cruelty.
13 I fainted had, unlesse that I believed had, to see The Lords own goodnesse in the land
of them that living be.
14 Wait on the Lord, & be thou strong and he shall strength afford Unto thine heart, yea, do thou wait,
I say, upon the Lord.

PSALM XXVIII.

Thee, I'll cry, O Lord, my rock
hold not thy peace to me:

Left like those that to pit descend,
 I by thy silence be.
 2 The voice hear of my humble
 when unto thee I cry: [prayer,
 When to thy holy oracle
 I lift mine hands on hie,
 3 With ill men draw me not away,
 that work iniquity, [while in That speak peace to their friends,
 their hearts doth mischiefly;
 4 Give them according to their deeds,
 and its endeavoured,
 And, as their handie-works deserve,
 to them be rendered.
 5 God shall not build, but them de-
 who would not understand. [sroy
 The Lords own works, nor did regard the doing of his hand.
 6 For ever blessed be the Lord,
 for graciously he head
 The voyce of my petitions,
 and prayers did regard.
 7 The Lord's my strength & shield,
 upon him did rely. [my heart,
 And I am helped, hence my heart
 doth joy exceedingly.
 And with my song I will him praise,
 8 Their strength is God alone;
 He also is the saving strength
 of his anointed One.
 9 O thine own people do thou save,
 blesse thine inheritance:
 Them also do thou feed, and them
 for evermore advance.

PSALM XXIX.

Give ye unto the Lord, ye sons
 that of the mighty be,
 All strength and glory to the Lord,
 with cheerfulnesse give ye,
 Unto the Lord the glory give,
 that to his Name is due:
 And in the beauty of holinesse,
 unto Jehovah bow.
 3 The Lords voyce on the water is;
 the God of majesty
 Both thunder, and on multitudes
 of waters sitteth He.
 4 A pow'rfull voyce it is, that come out from the Lord most hie;
 The voyce of that great Lord, is full of glorious, majestic.
 5 The voyce of the Eternall doth
 asunder cedars tear:
 Yea, God the Lord doth cedars break
 that Lebanon doth bear.
 6 He make them like a calfe to skip:
 ev'n that great Lebanon,
 And like to a young unicorn

the mountain Sirion
 7 Gods voyce divides & flames offire
 8 The desert it doth shake;
 The Lord doth make the wilderness
 of Kadesh, all to quake.
 9 Gods voyce doth make & hinders to it makes the Forrest bare: [calve;
 And in his Temple every one
 his glory doth declare.
 10 The Lord sits on & Floods, the Lord sits King and ever shall [strength 11 The Lord will give his people and with peace blesse them all.

PSALM XXX.

Lord, I will thee extoll, for thou hast lifted me on hie,
 And over me thou to rejoyce
 mad'st not mine enemies.
 2 O thou who art the Lord my God,
 I in distresse to thee
 With loud cries lifted up my voyce,
 and thou hast healed me. [up, 3 O Lord, my soul thou hast brought
 and rescu'd from the grave:
 That I to pit should not go down,
 alive thou didst me save.
 4 O ye that are his holy ones,
 sing praise unto the Lord,
 And give unto him thanks when you
 his holinesse record.
 5 For, but a moment lasts his wraths
 life in his favour lyes:
 Weeping may for a night endure,
 in morn doth joy arise.
 6 In my prosperity, I said,
 that nothing shall me move.
 7 O Lord, thou hast my mountain to stand strong by thy love [made But when that thou, O gracious God, didst hide thy fece from me.
 Then quickly was my prosperous
 turn'd into misery. [state
 8 Wherefore unto the Lord, my cry
 I caused to ascend.
 My humble supplication
 I to the Lord did send.
 9 What profit is there in my blood,
 when I go down in pit?
 Shall unto thee the dust give praise,
 thy truth declare shall it? [Lord,
 10 Hear Lord, have mercy help me
 11 From me thou turn'd my sadness
 To dancing: yea, my sackcloth loos'd,
 and girded me with gladnesse.
 12 That sing thy praise my glory may,
 and never silent be:
 O Lord, my God, for evermore
 I will give thanks to thee.

PSALM XXXI.

IN thee, O Lord, I put my trust,
sham'd let me never be:
According to thy righteousness,
do thou deliver me.

2 Bowe down thine ear to me with
send me deliverance: [speed,

To save me, my strong rock be thou,
and my house of defence

3 Because thou art my rock, and thee
I for my fortress take:

Therefore do thou me lead and guide,
ev'n for thine own Name's sake.

4 And sith thou art my strength there-pull me out of the net, [fore

Which they in subtilty for me
so privily have set:

5 Into thine hands, I do commit
my spirit: for thou art he,

6 thou Jehovah, God of truth,
that had redeemed me.

7 Those that do lying vanities
regard, I have abhor'd:

But as for me, my confidence
is fixed on the Lord.

8 I'll in thy mercy gladly joy:
for thou, my miseries

Considered hast; thou hast my soul
known in adversities;

9 And thou hast not inclosed me
within the enemies hand;

And by thee have my feet been made in a large room to stand.

10 O Lord, upon me mercy have,
for trouble is on me;

Mine eye, my belly, and my soul
with grief consumed be.

11 Because my life with grief is spent,
my years with sighs and groans:

My strength doth fail; and for my sin consumed are my bones.

12 I was a scorn to all my foes,
and to my friends a fear,

And specially reproacht of those that were my neighbours near:

When they me saw, they from me fled.
13 Ev'n so I am forgot,

As men are out of minde, when dead:
I'm like a broken pot.

14 For slanderers I of many hear'd, fear compass me, while they

Against me did consuit and plot,
to take my life away.

15 But as for me, O Lord, my trust,
upon thee I did lay:

And I to thee; thou art my God,

die confidently say.

16 My times are wholly in thine hand
do thou deliver me

From their hands, that mine enemies
and persecuters be.

17 Thy countenance to shine, do thou upon thy servant makes:

Unto me give salvation,
for thy great mercies sake.

18 Let me not be ashamed, O Lord,
for on thee call'd I have:

Let wicked men be sham'd, let them
be silent in the grave.

19 To silence put the lying lips:
that grievous things do say,

And hard reports, in pride and scorn,
on righteous men do lay.

20 How great's thy goodness thou for that fear thee keepst in store; [them

And wroughtst for them that trust in the sons of men before [thee,

21 In secret of thy presence, thou shalt hide them from mans pride:

From strife of tongues, thou closely as in a tent, them hide. [shalt

22 All praise & thanks be to the Lord;
or he hath magnifi'd,

His wondrous love to me, within a city fortifi'd.

23 For from thine eyes cut off I am,
(I in my haste had said) [thee

My voice yet heardst thou when to with cries my moan I made.

24 O love the Lord all ye his saints:
because the Lord doth guard

The faithfull and he plenteously proud doers doth reward.

25 Be of good courage, and he strength unto your heart shall send,

All ye whose hope and confidence
doth on the Lord depend.

PSALM XXXII.

O Blessed is the man, to whom is freely pardoned

All the transgression he hath done,
whose sin is covered.

2 Blest is the man, to whom the Lord
imputeth not his sin.

And in whose spirit there is no guile,
nor fraud is found therein.

3 When as I did refrain my speech,
and silent was my tongue,

My bones then waxed old, because I roared all day long.

4 For upon me both day and night,
thine hand did heavie lie,

So that my moisture turned is in summers drouth thereby.

I thee

6 I there upon have unto thee
my sin acknowledged.
And likewise mine iniquity,
I have not covered:
I will confesse unto the Lord
my trespasses, said I;
And of my sin thou freely didst
forgive th'iniquity.
6 For this shall every godly one,
his prayer make to thee,
In such a time he shall thee seek,
as found thou mayest be.
Surely, when floods of waters great,
do swell up to the brim,
They shall not overwhelm his soul,
not once come neare to him.
7 Thou art my hiding place, thou from trouble keep me free: [shalt Thou with songs of deliverance,
about shall compasse me.
8 I will instruct thee, and thee teach
the way that thou shalt go.
And, with mine eye upon thee set,
I will direction show.
9 Then be not like y^e horse and mules which do not understand: [thee Whose mouth, lest they come near to a bridle must command.
10 Unto the man that wicked is,
his sorrows shall abound:
But him that trusteth in the Lord,
mercy shall compasse round.
11 Ye righteous, in the Lord be glad;
in him do ye rejoyce:
All ye that upright are in heart,
for joy lift up your voice.

PSALM XXXIII.

YE righteous in the Lord rejoyce:
it comely is, and right, [voice,
That upright men with thankful
should praise the Lord of might.
2 Praise God with harp: and unto him
sing with the psalterie.
Upon a ten-string'd instrument
make ye sweet melodie.
3 A new song to him sing, and play
with loud noise skilfully.
4 For right is Gods Word, all his
are done in verity. [works
5 To judgment and to righteousness,
a love he beareth still:
The loving kindnesse of the Lord
the earth throughout doth fill.
6 The heavens by the Word of God,
did their beginning make;
And by the breathing of his mouth,
He all their hosts did make.

7 The waters of the seas He brings together as an heap:
And in store-houses, as it were,
He layeth up the depth.
8 Let earth, and all that live therein,
with reverence fear the Lord:
Let all the worlds inhabitants
dread him with one accord.
9 For he did speak the Word, and done
it was, without delay, Established, it firmly stood
what ever he did say. [nought, 10 God doth the counsel bring to which heathen folk do take:
And what the people do devise,
of none effect doth make.
11 O! but the counsell of the Lord,
doth stand for ever sure.
And of his heart the purposes,
from age to age endure.
12 That nation blessed is, whose God Jehovah is: and those

his heritage he chose. [holds

that in the earth do dwell.
15 He forms their hearts alike: and all their doings he observes.
16 Great hosts save not a King: much no mighty man preserves. [strength 17 An horse for preservation
is a deceitfull thing:
And by the greatnesse of his strength,
can no deliverance bring.
18 Behold, on these that do him fear,
the Lord doth set his eye;
Ev'n those, who on his mercie do with confidence rely.
19 From death to free their soul in life unto them to yeeld. [earth, 20 Our soul doth wait upon the Lord,
he is our help and shield.
21 Sith in his holy Name we trust,
our heart shall joyfull be.
22 Lord, let thy mercy be on us,
as we do hope in thee.

PSALM XXXIV.

GOD will I blisse all times: his praise
my mouth shall still expresse.
1 My soul shall boast in God, the meek shall hear with joy fulnesse.
3 Extol the Lord with me, let us
exalt his Name together.
4 I sought the Lord, he heard, and did me from all fear deliver. [were 5 They look'd on him, & lightned
not shamed were their faces.

6 This poor man cri'd, God heart, and him from all his distresse. [sav'd 7 The angel of the Lord encamps,
and round encompasseth
All those about that do him fear,
and them delivereth.

8 O taste and see, that God is good :
who trusts in him is blest.

9 Fear God his saints none that him shall be with want oppress. [fear

10 The lions young may hungry be,
and they may lack thier food :

But they that truly seek the Lord,
shall not lack any good.

11 O children, hither do ye come,
and unto me give ear ;

I shall you teach to understand how ye the Lord should fear.

12 What man is he that life desires,
to see good would live long ? [guile,

13 Thy lips refrain from speaking and from ill words thy tongue.

14 Depart from ill, do good, seek pursue it earnestly. [peace,

15 Gods eyes are on the just, his ears
are open to their cry.

16 The face of God is set against
those that do wickedly.

That he may quite out from the earth
cut off their memorie.

17 The righteous cry unto the Lord,
he unto them gives ear :

And they out of their troubles all,
by him delivered are

18 The Lord is ever nigh to them
that be of broken spirits

To them he safety doth afford,
that are in heart contrite.

19 The troubles that afflict the just,
in number many be :

But yet at length, our of them all,
the Lord doth set them free.

20 He carefully his bones doth keep,
what ever can befall :

That not so much as one of them
can broken be at all.

21 Ill shall the wicked slay : laid wast
shall be, who hate the just.

22 The Lord redeems his servants souls,
none perish that him trust.

P S A L M XXXV.

Plead Lord, with those that plead, &
with those y sight with me. [sight

2 Of shield & buckler take thou hold,
stand up mine help to be,

3 Draw also out the spear, and do against them stop the way,
That me pursue unto my soul,
I'm thy salvation, say.

4 Let them confounded be, & sham'd,
that for my soul have sought :

Who plot my hurt turn'd back be
and to confusion brought. [they,

5 Let them be like unto the chaff,
that flies before the winde :

And let the angel of the Lord
pursue them hard behinde.

6 With darknesse cover thou their

And let the angel of the Lord

7 For without cause have they for me
their net hid in a pit,

They also have without a cause,
for my soul digged it.

8 Let ruine saise him unawares,
his net he hid withall

Himself let catcht: and in the same destruction let him fall.

9 My soul in God shall joy: and glad in his salvation be.

10 And all my bones shall say, O Lord,
who is like unto thee,

Which dost the poor set free from him
that is for him too strong :

The poor and needy from the man
that spoils and does him wrong ?

11 False witnesses rose : to my charge
things I not knew they laid

12 They, to the spoiling of my soul,
me ill for good repai'd.

13 But as for me, when they were sick,
in sackcloth sad I mourn'd :

My humbled soul did fast, my pray'r
into my bosom turn'd.

14 My self I did behave, as he had been my friend, of brothera

I heavily bow'd down, as one that mourneth with his mother.

15 But in my trouble they rejoyc'd, gathering themselves together a

Yea, abjects vile, together did themselves against me gather :

I knew it not, they did me tear,
and quiet would not be.

16 With mocking hypocrites, at feasts
they gnash't their teeth at me.

17 How long Lord, lookst thou on ?
destructions they intend [from those

Rescue my soul, from lions young,
my darling do defend.

18 I will give thanks to thee, O Lord,
within th' assembly great :

And

And, where much people gathered thy praises forth will set, [are,

19 Let not my wrongfull enemies
proudly rejoyce ov'r me:

Nor, who me hate without a cause,
let them, wink with the eye

20 For peace they do not speak at all:
but crafty plots prepare

Against all those within the land,
that meek and quiet are 21 With mouths set wide, they 'gainst

23 Stir up thy self; wake y thou maist

my onely God and Lord.

after thy righteousness.

And tet them not their joy 'gainst me

25 Nor let them say within their Ah, we would have it thus;

Nor suffer them to say, that he is swallowed up by us.

26 Sham'd & confounded be they all
that at my hurt are glad:

Let those against me that do boast,
with shame and scorne be glad.

27 Let them y love my righteous cause
be glad, shout, and not cease,

To say the Lord be magnifi'd,
who loves his servants peace.

28 Thy righteousness shall also be declared by my tongue.

The praises that belong to thee,
speak shall it all day long.

PSALM XXXVI.

THe wicked mans transgression,
within my heart thus sayes.

Undoubtedly the fear of God
is not before his eyes.

2 Because himself he flattereth
in his own blinded eye,

Untill the hatefullnesse be found
of his iniquity.

3 Words from his mouth proceeding, fraud and iniquity: are

He to be wise, and to do good,
hath left off utterly.

4 He mischief, lying on his bed,
most cunningly doth plot,

He sets himself in wates not good;
ill he abhorreth not.

5 Thy mercy, Lord, is in the heavens
thy truth doth reach the clouds.

6 Thy justice is like mountains great,

thy judgements deep as floods;

Lord, thou preservest man and beast,

7 How precious is thy grace!

Therefore on shadows of thy wings,
mens sons their trust shall place.

8 Thy with the fainesse of thy house,
shall be well satisf'd:

From rivers of thy pleasures thou wilt drink to them provide,

9 Because of life the fountain pure remains alone with thee:

And in that hurest light of thine,
we clearly light shall see.

10 Thy loving kindnesse unto them
continue that thee know;

And still on men upright in heart,
thy righteousness bestow.

11 Let not the foot of cruell pride
come, and against me stand;

And let me not removed be,
Lord, by the wicked's hand.

12 There fall'n are they, and ruined,
that work iniquities:

Cast down they are, and never shall be able to arise.

PSALM XXXVII.

FOr evill doers fret thou not thy self, quietly,

Nor do thou envy bear to those
that work iniquity.

2 For, even like unto the grasse, soo'n be cut down shall they,

And like the green and tender herb,
they wither shall away

3 Set thou thy trust upon the Lord,
and be thou doing good,

And so thou in the Lord shalt dwell,
and virily have food.

4 Delight thy self in God, he'll give thine hearts desire to thee.

5 Thy way to God commit, him trust,
it bring to passe shall he.

6 And like unto the light he shall thy righteousness display, [forth

And he thy judgement shall bring like noon-tide of the day.

7 Rest in the Lord, and patiently
wait for him: do not fret

For him, who prospering in his way, successe in sin doth get.

8 Do thou from anger cease, and see thou forsake also: [wrath

Fret not thy self in any wise,
that evill thou should do.

9 For those that evill doers are,
shall be cut off and fall:

But those that wait upon the Lord,
the earth inherit shall:

10 For, yet a little while, and then the wicked shall not be :

His place thou shalt consider well,
but it thou shalt not see.

11 But, by inheritance the earth
the meek-ones shall possesse :

They also shall delight themselves
in an abundant peace.

12 The wicked plots against the iust,
and at him whets his teeth.

13 The Lord shall laugh at him, be-his day he coming seeth. [cause

14 The wicked have drawn out a and bent ther bow to slay [sword,

The pour and needy, and to kill
men of an upright way.

15 But their own sword, which they [have drawn
shall enter their own heart

Their bows, which they have bent,
and into pieces part [shall break,

16 A little that a iust man hath,
is more, and better far

Then is the wealth of many such as lewd and wicked are.

17 For sinners arms shall broken be :
but God the iust sustains.

18 God knows y^e iust mans dayes and their heritage remains. [still 19 They shall not be asham'd when the euill time do see:

And when the dayes of famine are,
they satisfi'd shall be.

20 But wicked men, and foes of God,
as fat of lambs decay.

They shall consume; yea, into smoke
they shall consume away.

21 The wicked borrows, but the same
again he doth not pay :

Whereas the righteous mercy shows,
and gives his own away.

22 For such as blessed be of him,
the earth inherit shall;

And, they that cursed are of him,
shall be destroyed all.

23 A good mans footsteps by the Lord
are ordered right:

And in the way wherein he walks,
he greatly doth delight.

24 Although he fall, yet shall he not be cast down utterly:

Because the Lord with his own hand upholds him mightily.

25 I have been young, and now am
yet have I never seen [old,

The iust man left, nor that his seed

for bread have beggers been,

16 He is ever mercifull, and lends;
his seed is blest therefore.

17 Depart from euill and do good;
and dwell forever more.

18 For God loves judgement, and his leaves not in any case, [saints

They are kept even; but cut off
shall be the sinners race.

19 The iust inherit shall the land,
and ever in it dwell.

20 The iust mans mouth doth wisdom [speak;

his tongue doth judgement tel.

21 In 's heart the Law is of his God,
his steps slide not away.

22 The wicked man doth watch y^e iust,
and seeketh him to slay.

23 Yet him the Lord will not forsake,
nor have him in his hands,

The righteous will he not condemns,
when he in judgements stands.

24 Wait on the Lord, & keep his way
and thee exalt shall He,

The earth to inherit; when cut off
the wicked thou shalt see.

25 I saw the wicked great in pow'r spread like a green bay-tree.

26 He pass, yea, was not; him I sought,
but found he could not be.

27 Mark thou the perfect, and behold
the man of uprightnesse:

Because that surely of this man
the latter end is peace.

28 But those men that transgressours shall be destroy'd together, [are.

The latter end of wicked men shall be cut off for ever.

29 But the saluation of the iust
is from the Lord above,

He, in the time of their distresse,
their stay and strength doth prove.

30 The Lord shall help and them deli-
he shall them free and save [ven

From wicked men: because in him their confidence they have.

P S A L M XXXVIII.

[N thy great indignation,
O Lord, rebuke me not:

Nor on me lay thy chastening hand,
in thy displeasure hot,

2 For in me last thine arrows stick,
thine hand doth presse me fore.

3 And in my flesh there is no health
nor soundnesse any more,

This grief I have, because thy wrath
is forth against me gone:

And in my bones there is no rest,
for sin that I have done.

PSALM XXXIX. XL.

22

1 Because, gone up above my head,
my great transgressions be:
And as a weighty burden, they
to heavy are for me.
2 My wounds do stink, & are corrupt:
my folly makes it so.
3 I troubled am and much bow'd
all day I mourning go. [down:
4 For a disease that lothsome is,
so fills my loyns with pain,
That in my weak and wearie flesh
no soundnesse doth remain.
5 So feeble and infirm am I,
and broken am so sore:
That through disquiet of my heart,
I have been made to roare.
6 O Lord, all that I do desire,
is still before thine eye:
And of my heart the secret groanes
not hidden are from thee.
7 My heart doth pant unceasingly,
my strength doth quite decay:
And for mine eyes, their wonted light
is from me gone away.
8 My lovers and my friends do stand
at distance from my sore:
And those do stand aloof, that were kinsmen, and kind before. [snares, 9 Yea, they that seek my life, lay who seek to do me wrong Speak things mischevous, & deceits
imagine all day long.
10 But, as one deaf, that heareth not,
I suffered all to passe:
I as a dumb man did become,
whose mouth not op'ned was.
11 As one that hears not, in whose are no reproofs at all. [mouth 12 For, Lord I hope in thee, my God, thou'lt hear me when I call.
13 For I said, hear me, lest they should rejoyce ov'r me with pride:
And ov'r me magnifie themselves
when as my foot doth slide.
14 For I am near to halt, my grief
is still before mine eye.
15 For I'll declare my sin; and grieve
for mine iniquity.
16 But yet mine enemies lively are,
and strong are they beside:
And they that hate me wrongfully,
are greatly multipli'd.
17 And they, for good that render ill,
as enemies me withstood:
Yea, ev'n for this because that I do follow what is good.
18 Forsake me not, O Lord, my God,
far from me never be.
19 O Lord, thou my salvation art,
haste to give help to me.

PSALM XXXIX.

I Said, I will look to my wayes,
left with my tongue I sin:
In sight of wicked men, my mouth
with bridle I'll keep in.
2 With silence, I as dumb became,
I did my self restrain,
From speaking good, but then the increased was my pain. [more 3 My heart within me waxed hot,
and while I musing was,
The fire did burn: & from my tongue
these words I did let passe.
4 Mine end, & measure of my dayes,
O Lord, unto me show
What is the same: that thereby,
my frailtie well may know.
5 Lo, thou my dayes an hand-breadth
mine age is in thine eye [mad'st,
As nothing: sure each man at best
is wholly vanitie. [show;
6 Sure, each man walks in a vain
they vex themselves in vain:
He heaps up wealth, and doth not to whom it shall pertain. [know 7 And now, O Lord, what wait I for?
my hope is fix'd on thee.
8 Free me from all my trespasses,
the fools scorne make not me.
9 Dumb was I, opening not my [mouth,
because this work was thine.
10 Thy stroke take from me: by the
of thine hand I do pine. [blow 11 When with rebukes thou dost corman, for iniquity. [re-Thou wastes his beauty like a moth:
sure each man's vanity.
12 Attend my cry, Lord at my teares,
and pray'rs, not silent be:
I sojourn as my fathers all,
and stranger am with thee.
13 Spare thou me, that I my strength recover may again.
Before from hence I do depart,
and here no more remain.

PSALM XL.

I Waited for the Lord my God,
and patiently did bear;
At length to me he did incline
my voice and cry to hear.
3 He took me from the myrie pit,
and from the myrie clay,
And on a rock he set my feet,
establishing my way.
4 He put a new song in my mouth.
our God to magnify:
Many shall see it and shall fear,
and on the Lord rely;

B 5

4 O blessed is the man whose trust
upon the Lord relies:
Respecting not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lyes.

5 O Lord my God, full many are the wonders thou hast done?
Thy gracious thoughts, to usward,
abode all thoughts, are gone: [far
In order none can rack on them
to thee: if them declare.
And speak of them I would they mee
then can be numbred are.

6 No sacrifice, nor offering,
didst thou at all desire, [thou Mine eares thou bor'd: sin offering and burnt, didst not require:

7 Then to the Lord these were my
I come, behold and see: [words,
Within the volume of thy book,
it written is of me:

8 To do thy will, I take delight,
O thou my God that art:
Yea that most holy law of thine,
I have within my heart.

9 Within the congregation great,
I righteousness did preach:
Lo, thou dost know, O Lord, that I refrain'd not my speech.

10 I never did within my heart
conceal thy righteousness:
I thy salvation have declar'd,
and shown thy faithfulness:

Thy kindness, which most loving is,
concealed have not I,
Nor from the Congregation great
have hid thy verity.

11 Thy tender mercies, Lord, from me,
O do thou not restrain:
Thy loving kindness and thy truth,
let them me still maintain.

12 For ills, past reckning compass'd
and mine iniquities [me,
Such hold upon me taken have,
I cannot lift mine eyes: [head,
They more then hairs are on mine
thence is my heart dismay'd.

13 Be pleas'd, Lord to rescue me:
Lord hasten to mine aid.

14 Sham'd & confounded be they all
that seek my soul to kill:
Yea, let them backward driven be,
and sham'd that wish me ill.

15 For a reward of this their shame,
confounded let them be,
That in this manner scolding say,
Aha, aha to me,

16 In thee let all be glad and joy,
who seeking thee abide
Who thy salvation love, say still,
the Lord be magnifi'd.

17 I'm poor and needy, yet the Lord
of me a care doth take,
Thou art my help and Saviour,
my God no tarrying make,

P S A L M XLII.

Bless'd is he that wisely doth
the poor mans case consider;
For, when the time of trouble is,
the Lord will him deliver.

2 God will him keep; yea, save alive,
on earth he blest shall live;
And to his enemies desire,
thou will him not up-give.

3 God will give strength where he on of languishing doth mourn. [bed
And in his sickness sore, O Lord,
thou all his bed will turn.

4 I said, O Lord, do thou extend
thy mercy unto me;
O do thou heal my soul, for why,
I have offended thee.

5 Those that to me are enemies,
of me do evil say;
When shall he die, that so his name
my perish quite away?

6 To see me if he comes, he speaks vain words: but then his heart Helps mischief to it, which he tells,
when forth he doth depart.

7 My haters, joyntly whispering, 'gainst me, my hurt devise.

8 Mischief say they, cleaves fast to him
he lyeth, and shall not rise.

9 Yea even mine own familiar friend,
on whom I did rely,
Who ate my bread, ev'n he is heel
against me lifted hie.

10 But, Lord, be mercifull to me,
and up against me raise,
That I may justly them requite
according to their wayes.

11 By this I know, that certainly
I favoured am by thee:
Because my hatefull enemy
triumphs not over me.

12 But as for me, thou me upholdst
in mine integrity:
And, me before thy countenance
thou sett'st continually.

13 The Lord, the God of Israel,
be blest for ever then,
From age to age eternally,
Amen, yea, and amen.

P S A L M XLIII.

Like as the hart for water-brooks
in thirst doth pant and bray:
So pant my longing soul, O God,
that come to thee I may.

1 My soul for God, the living God, doth thirst: when shall I near Unto thy countenance approach.
and in Gods sight appear:
3 My tears have unto me been meat,
both in the night and day,
While unto me continually,
where is thy God, they say?
4 My soul is poured-out on me,
when this I think upon:
Because that with the multitude
I heretofore had gone:
With them into God, house I went,
with voice of joy and praise,
Yea, with the multitude, that kept
the solemn holy dayes.
5 O why art thou cast down, my soul,
why on me so dismaid:
Trust God, for I shall praise him yet,
his countenance is mine aid.
6 My God, my soul's cast down in me:
thee therefore minde I will
From Iordans land, the Hermonites, and ev'n from Mizarhill.
7 At the noise of the water-spout,
deep unto deep doth call:
The breaking waues passe over me,
yea that thy hollows all 8 His loving kindnesse yet the Lord
command will in the day:
His song's with me by night, to God,
by whom I live, I'll pray.
9 And I will say to God my rock,
why me forgets thou so?
Why, for my foes oppression.
thus mourning do I go?
10 It's as a sword within my bones,
when my foes me upbraid:
Ev'n when by them, Where is thy it's dayly to me said. [God?]
11 O why art thou cast down my soul?
why, thus with grief oppressd,
Art thou disquieted in me?
in God still hope and rest:
For yet I know I shall him praise,
who graciously to me
The health is of my countenance,
yea, mine own God is he.

PSALM XLIII.

Judge me, O God, and plead my cause
against th'ungodly nation:
From the unjust and craftie man,
O be thou my salvation.
2 For thou the God art of my strength
why thrusts thou mee thee fro?
For th'enemies oppression,
why do I mourning go?
3 O send thy light forth & thy truth,
let them be guides to me.

And bring me to thine holy Hill,
ev'n where thy dwelling be.
4 Then will I to Gods Altar go,
to God my chiefest joy:
Yea, God, my God thy Name to praise,
my harp I will employ. [soul?]
5 Why art thou then cast down my that we should discourage thee?
And why, with vexing thought, art
disquieted in me? [thou]
Still trust in God, for him to praise
good cause I yet shall have:
He of my countenance is the health,
my God that doth me save.

PSALM XLIV.

O God, we with our ears have
our fathers have us told, [heard,
What works thou in their dayes hadst
ev'n in the dayes of old. [done,
2 Thy hand did drive the Heathen out,
and plant them in their place:
Thou didst afflict the nations,
but them thou didst encrease.
3 For neither got their sword the land,
nor did their arms them save:
But thy right hand arm, countenances
for thou them favour gave:
4 Thou art my king, for Jacob, Lord,
deliverances command.
5 Through thee, we shall push tread
that do against us stand: [down foes
We, through thy Name, shall not trust, that risen against us have. [those 6 For in my bow I shall not trust,
nor shall my sword me save.
7 But, from our foes thou hast us
our haters put to shame. [fav'd.
8 In God we, all the day do boast,
and ever praise thy Name.
9 But now we are cast off by thee,
and us thou puttst to shame:
And, when our armies do go forth
thou go'st not with the same.
10 Thou mak'st us from the enemy,
faint-hearted, to turn back:
And they who hate us for themselves
our spoils away do take.
11 Like sheep for meat thou gavest us
mough Heathen cast we be. [sell.
12 Thou didst for nought thy people their price enrich'd not thee.
13 Thou mak'st us a reproach to be unto our neighbours near:
Derision, and a scorn to them
that round about us are.
14 A by-word also thou dost us
among the Heathen make:
The people, in contempt and spite,
at us their heads do shake.

- 15 Before me my confusion
continually abides:
And, of my bashfull countenance,
the shame me ever hides.
16 For voice of him y^e doth reproach,
and speaketh blasphemy:
By reason of th'avenging foe,
and cruell enemy.
17 All this is come on us: yet we have not forgotten thee,
Nor falsely in thy covenant
behav'd our selves have we.
18 Back from thy way out heart not [turn'd,
our steps no straying made: place
19 Though us thou break'st in dragons
and coverest with deaths shade, 20 If we Gods Name forgot, or streacht
to a strange god our hands:
21 Shall not God search this our for he hearts secrets understands. [davi 22 Yea, for thy sake, w're kill'd all counted as slaughter-sheep.
23 Rise, Lord, cast us not ever off,
awake, why dost thou sleep?
24 O wherefore hidest thou thy face
forgetst our case didst rest.
25 And our oppression? For our soul is to the dust down prest:
Our belly also on the earth,
fast cleaving, hold doth take.
26 Rise for our help, and us redeem,
ev'n for thy mercies sake.

PSALM XLV.

- MY heart brings forth a goodly
my works that I endite [thing:
Concern the King: my tongue's a pen
of one that swift doth write.
2 Thou fairer art then sons of men:
into thy lips is store
Of grace infus'd: God therefore thee
hath blest for evermore.
3 O thou that art the mighty One,
thy sword gird on thy thigh:
Ev'n with thy glory excellent,
and with thy Majestie. [nesse,
4 For meeknesse, truth & righteous-
in state ride prosperously:
And thy right hand shall thee instruct in things that fearfull be.
5 Thine arrows sharply pierce y^e hearts
of th'enemies of the King:
And under thy subjection
the people down do bring.
6 For ever and for ever is O God, thy throne of might:
The scepter of thy Kingdom is a scepter that is right, 7 Thou lovest right, and hatest ill:

- for God, thy God most his Above thy fellows hath, wit th'oyl
of joy, anointed thee.
8 Of aloes, myrrhe, and cassia,
a smell thy garment had:
Out of thy ivorie places,
whereby they made thee glad.
9 Amongh the women honourable Kings daughters were at hand
Upon thy right hand did the queen, in gold of Ophir stand.
10 O daughter, hearken and regard,
and do thine ear incline:
Likewise forget thy fathers house,
and people that are thine.
11 Then of the King desir'd shall be thy beaurie vehemently:
Because he is thy Lord, do thou
him worship reverently.
12 The daughter there of Tyre [shall with gifts and offerings great: [be,
Those of the people that are rich
thy favour shall intreat.
13 Behold the daughter of the King
all glorious is within:
And, with embroyderies of gold,
her garments wrought have bin.
14 She shall be brought unto the King,
in robes, with needle wrought:
Her fellow-virgins following,
shall unto thee be brought.
15 They shall be brought with gladnes
and mirth on every side. [great,
Into the palace of the King,
and there they shall abide.
16 In stead of those thy fathers dear,
thy children thou mayest take,
And in all places of the earth,
them noble Princes make.
17 Thy Name remembered I will through ages all, to be: [make,
The people therefore evermore
shall praises give to thee.

Another of the same.

- MY heart ending is good matter in a song:
I speak the thing that I have made
which to the King belong:
My tongue shall be as quick
his honour to endite,
As is the pen of any scribe
that useth fast to write.
2 Thou art fairest of all men,
grace in thy lips doth flow:
And therefore blessings evermore
on thee doth God bestow.
3 Thy sword gird on thy thigh,
thou that art most of might:

Appears

Appear in dreadfull Majestie,
and in thy glory bright.

4 For meeknesse, truth and right,
ride prosperously in state:
And thy right hand shall teach to thee things terrible and great.

5 Thy shafts shall pierce their hearts
that foes are to the King:
Whereby into subjection
the people thou shalt bring.

6 Thy royall seat, O Lord,
for ever shall remain:
The scepter of thy Kingdom doth
all righteousnesse maintain.

7 Thou lov'st right, and hat'st stills
for God, the God most hie.
Above thy fellows, hath with th'oyl
of joy anointed thee.

8 Of myrrhe and spices sweet
a smell thy garments had:
Out of thy ivorie palaces,
whereby they made thee glad.

9 And, in thy glorious train,
Kings daughters waiting stand:
And thy fair queen, in Ophir gold,
doth stand at thy right hand.

10 O daughter, take good heed,
incline, and give good ear;
Thou must forget thy kindred all,
and fathers house most dear.

11 Thy beautie to the King,
shall then delightfull be:
And, do thou humbly worship him,
because thy Lord is he.

12 The daughter then of Tyre
There with a gift shall be.
And all the wealthy of the land shall make their sute to thee.

13 The daughter of the King
all glorious is within;
And, with embroyderies of gold,
her garments wrought have bin.

14 She cometh to the King,
in robes with needle wrought:
The virgins that do follow her
shall unto thee be brought.

15 They shall be brought with joy,
and mirth on every side
into the palace of the King,
and there they shall abide.

16 And, in thy fathers stead,
thy children thou may'st take,
And, in all places of the earth,
them noble Princes make.

17 I will shew forth thy Name
to generations all:
Therefore thy people evermore
to thee give praises shall.

PSALM XLVI.

God is our refuge, and our strength,
in straits a present aid.

2 Therefore, although the earth re-
we will not be afraid: [move,

Though hills amidst the sea be cast,

3 Though waters roaring make,
And troubled be; yea though the hills
by swelling seas do shake.

4 A river is, whose streams do glad
the City of our God:
The holy place wherein the Lord
most hie hath his abode.

5 God in the midst of her doth dwell,
nothing shall her remove;
The Lord to her an helper will,
and that right early, prove.

6 The Heathen rag'd tumultuously,
the Kingdoms moved were:
The Lord God uttered his voice,
the earth did melt for fear.

7 The Lord of hosts upon our side
doth constantly remain:
The God of Jacob's our refuge,
us safely to maintain. [works,

8 Come, and behold what wondrous have by the Lord been wrought:
Come, see what desolations
he on the earth hath brought.

9 Unto the ends of all the earth
wars into peace he turns:
The bow he breaks the spear he cuts,
in fire the chariots burns.

10 Be still, and know that I am Gods
among the Heathen I Will be exalted, I on earth
will be exalted hie.

11 Our God, who is the Lord of Hosts,
is still upon our side:
The God of Jacob our refuge
for ever will abide.

PSALM XLVII.

All people clap your hands, to God
with voice of triumph shout.

2 For dreadfull is the Lord most hie,
great Kings, the earth throughout.

3 The Heathen people under us
he surely shall subdue:
And he shall make the nations
under our feet to bow,

4 The lot of our inheritance
choose out for us shall he,
Of Jacob whom he loved well,
ev'n the excellencie. [Lord

5 God is with shouts gone up, the with trumpets sounding hie.

- 6 Sing praise to God, sing praise, sing
praise to our King sing ye. [praise, 7 For God is King of all the earth,
with knowledge praise expresse.
8 God rules the nations. God sits on his throne of holinesse.
9 The princes of the people are assembled willinglie Ev'n of the God of Abraham,
they who the people be.
For why, the shields that do defend
the earth, are onely his:
They to the Lord belong, yea He exalted greatly is.

PSALM XLVIII.

- Great is the Lord, and greatly He is to be praised still.
Within the City of our God,
upon his holy hill.
2 Mount Sion stands most beautifull,
the joy of all the land;
The City of the mighty King
on her north-side doth stand.
3 The Lord, within her palaces,
is for a refuge known:
4 For lo, the Kings that gathered were together by have gone.
5 But, when they did behold the same,
thy wondring, would not stay;
But, being troubled at the sight,
they thence did haste away. [them 6 Great terrour there took hold on
they were possel'd with fear,
Their grief came like a womans pain,
when she a childe doth bear.
7 Thou Tarshish ships with east-wind
8 As we have heard it told; [breaks:
So in the City of the Lord
our eyes did it behold,
In our Gods City, which his hand
for ever stablish will.
9 We, of thy loving kindnesse thought Lord, in thy Temple still.
10 O Lord, according to thy Name,
through all the earth's thy praise:
And thy right hand, O Lord, is full of righteousness alwayes.
11 Because thy judgements are made let Sion mount rejoyce: [known,
Of Judah let the daughters all
send forth a chearfull voice.
12 Walk about Sion, and go round,
the high towers thereof tell:
13 Consider ye her palaces,
and mark her bulwarks well,
That ye may tell posteritie,
14 For this God doth abide Our God for evermore he will ev'n unto death us guide

PSALM XLIX.

- Hear this all people, and give ear
all in the world that dwell,
2 Both low & high, both rich & poor,
3 My mouth shall wisdom tell,
My heart shall knowledge meditate.
4 I will incline mine ear
To parables, and on the harp
my sayings dark declare.
5 Amidst those dayes, that evil be,
why should I, fearing doubt?
When of my heels th'iniquitie
shall compasse me about.
6 Who e're they be, that in their wealth
their confidence do pitch,
And boast themselves, because they become exceeding rich. [are 7 Yet none of these his brother can redeem by any way,
Nor can he unto God, for him
sufficient rancome pay:
8 (Their souls redemption precious is and it can never be) 9 That still he should for ever live,
and not corruption see.
10 For why? he seeth that wisemen die,
and brutish fools also Do perish, & their wealth, when dead,
to others they let go. [house, 11 Their inward thought is, that their
and dwelling-places shall [lands Stand through all ages: they their
by their own names do call.
12 But yet in honour shall not man abide continually:
But passing hence, may be compar'd
unto the beasts that dy.
13 Thus, brutish folly plainly is their wisdom, and their ways Yet, their posteritie approve
what they do fondly say.
14 Like sheep, they in y^e grave are laid,
and death shall them devour:
And, in the morning, upright men
shall over them have pow'r:
Their beautie, from their dwelling,
consume within the grave. [shall 15 But, from hells hand God will mee
for he shall me receive. [free, 16 Be thou not then afraid, when one enriched thou dost see.
Nor when the glory of his house
advanced is on hie.
17 For, he shall carry nothing hence,
when death his dayns doth end:
Nor shall his glory after him
into the grave descend.
18 Although he his own soul did blesse whilst he on earth did live, (And

(And when thou to thy self dost well, men wil thee praises give)

they never shall see light. [ledge, is like beasts that perish quite.

P S A L M L.

THe mighty God, the Lord
hath spoken, and did call
The earth, from rising of the sun,
to where he hath his fall.
1 From out of Sihon hill,
which, of excellency
And beaute the perfection is,
God shined gloriously.
2 Our God shall surely come,
keep silence shall not He;
Before Him fire shall waste, great
shall round about Him be. [worms
4 Unto the heavens clear,
He from above shall call
And to the earth likewise, that He may judge his people all.
5 Together let my saints unto me gathered be,
Those that by sacrifice have made a covenant with me.
6 And then the heavens shall
his righteousness declare;
Because the Lord himself is He,
by whom men judged are.
7 My people Israel hear,
speak will I from on hie,
Against thee I will testify,
God, ev'n thy God am I.
8 I, for thy sacrifice,
no blame will on thee lay,
Nor burnt-offrings, which unto me
thou offeredst every day.
9 I'll take no calf nor goats,
from house or fold of thine:
10 For beasts of forests, cattell all
on thousand hills are mine.
11 The fowls on mountains high,
are all to me well known,
Wilde beasts, which in the fields do ly,
ev'n they are all mine own.
12 Then if I hungry were,
I would not tell it thee:
Because the world, and fulnesse all thereof belongs to me.
13 Will I eat flesh of buls?
or goats blood drink will I?
14 Thanks offer thou to God, and pay thy vows to the most hie:
15 And call upon me, when
in trouble thou shalt be,
I will deliver thee, and thou
my Name shalt glorifie.

16 But to the wicked man
God saith, my laws and truth
Shouldst thou declare? how darst thou my covenant in thy mouth? [take 17 Sith thou instruction hates,
which should thy wayes direct,
And, sith my words behinde thy back
thou casts, and dost reject.
18 When thou a thief didst see,
with him thou didst consent;
And with the vile adulterers
partaker on thou went.
19 Thou giv'st thy mouth to ill,
thy tongue deceit doth frame:
20 Thou sits, and 'gainst thy brother
thy mothers son doeth shame.
21 Because I silence kept, [wrought
while thou these things hast
That I was altogether like thy self, hath been thy thought Yet I will thee reprove,
and set before thine eyes
In order ranked thy misdeeds,
and thine iniquities.
22 Now, ye that God forget,
this carefully consider:
Lest I in pieces tear you all,
and none can you deliver.
23 Who so doth offer praise,
me glorifies, and I Will shew him Gods salvation,
that orders right his way.

Another of the same.

THe mighty God & Lord hath spoke,
and call'd the earth upon,
Ev'n from the rising of the sun,
unto his going down.
1 From out of Sichon hill
where the perfection hie
Of beauty is from thence the Lord
hath shined gloriously.
2 Our God shall come, & shall no more,
be silent, but speak out,
Before him fire shall waste, great
shall compass him about. [storms
4 He, to the heavens from above;
and to the earth below
Shall call, that He his judg'ment may before his people show.
5 Let all my saints together be unto me gathered,
Those, that by sacrifice, with me
a covenant have made.
6 And then the heavens shall declare
His righteousness abroad;

Because the Lord himself doth come,
none else is judge but God.

7 Hear, O my people, and I'll speake
O Israel by name.

Against thee I will testifie,
God, even thy God I am.

8 I, for thy sacrifices few,
reprove thee never will :

Nor for burnt-offrings to have been before me offered still.

9 I'll take no bullock, nor hee-goats
from house, nor folds of thine :

10 For, beasts of forrests, cattell all
on thousand hills are mine.

11 The fowls are all to me well known that mountains high do yeeld ;
And I do challenge as mine own,
the wilde beasts of the field.

12 If I were hungry, I would not to thee for need complain :
For earth, and all its fulnesse, doth
to me of right pertain.

13 That I, to eat the flesh of bulls
take pleasure, dost thou think ?
Or, that I need to quench my thirst,
the blood of goats to drink ?

14 Nay, rather unto me thy God,
thanksgiving offer thou,
To the most hie perform thy word,
and fully pay thy vow.

15 And, in the day of trouble great,
see that thou call on me :
I will deliver thee, and thou
my Name shalt glorifie.

16 But, God unto the wicked said,
why shouldst thou mention make
Of my commands ? how dar'st thou in thy mouth my covenant take ?

17 Sith it is so, that thou dost hate
all good instruction :
And sith thou casts behinde thy back,
and slightst my words each one.

18 When thou a thief didst see, then thou joynd with him in sin : [straight
And, with the vile adulterers,
thou hast partaker bin :

19 Thy mouth to evill thou dost give,
thy tongue deceit doth frame

20 Thou sit'st, and gainst thy brother
thymothers son to shame. [speak'st,

21 These things thou wickedly hast
and I have silent bin : [done,

Thou thought that I was like thy self,
and did approve thy sin :

But I will sharply thee reprove,
and I will order right.

Thy sins and thy transgressions
in presence of thy sight.

22 Consider this, and be afraid,
ye that forget the Lord,
Lest I in pieces tear you all
when none can helpe afford.

23 Who offereth praise, me glorifies
I will shew Gods salvation
To him that ordereth aright
his life, and conversation.

P S A L M L I.

AFTER thy loving kindnesse, Lord,
have mercy upon me :
For thy compassions great, blot out
all mine iniquitie.

2 Me cleanse from sin & throughly
from mine iniquitie. [wash

3 For my transgressions I confesse, my sin I ever see.

4 'Gainst thee, thee onely, have I sinn'd,
in thy sight done this ill,
That, when thou speakest, thou may be
and clear in judging still. [just,

5 Behold, I in iniquity was form'd the womb within :
My mother also me conceiv'd
in guiltinesse and sin :

6 Behold, thou, in the inward parts with truth delighted are :
And wisdom thou shalt make me
within the hidden part. [know

7 That thou with hyssop sprinkle me :
I shall be cleansed so :
Yea, wash thou me, and then I shall be whiter then the snow.

8 Of gladnesse, and of joyfulness
make me to hear the voice :
That, so these very bones, which thou hast broken, may rejoyce.

9 All mine iniquities blot out,
thy face hide from my sin,
10 Create a clean heart : Lord, renew a right spirit me within.

11 Cast me not from thy sight, nor take thy holy spirit away :

12 Restore me thy salvations joy :
with thy free spirit me stay.

13 Then will I teach thy ways unto those that transgressours be :
And those that sinners are shall then be turned unto thee.

14 O God of my salvation, God,
me from blood guiltinesse
Set free : then shall my tongue aloud
sing of thy righteousness.

15 My closed lips, O Lord, by thee
let them be opened :

Thou

Thou shalt thy praises by my mouth
abroad be published.

16 For thou desirest not sacrifice,
else would I give it thee:

Nor wilt thou with burnt-offering at all delighted be.

17 A broken spirit is to God
a pleasing sacrifice.

A broken, and a contrite heart,
Lord, thou wilt not despise.

18 Shew kindnesse & do good, O Lord,
to Sion thine owne hill:

The walls of thy Ierusalem
build up, of thy good will. [please,

19 Then righteous offerings shall thee
and offerings burnt which they,

With whole burnt-offerings & with shall on thine altar lay. [calves,

PSALM LII.

Why dost thou boast, Omighty
of mischief and of ill? [man,

The goodnesse of Almighty God
endureth ever still.

2 Thy tongue mischievous calumnies
deviseth subtilly,

Like to a razor, sharp to cut,
working deceitfully. [truth

3 Ill more then good, and more then thou lovest to speak wrong:

4 Thou lovest all devouring words,
O thou deceitfull tongue.

5 So God shall thee destroy for ay,
remove thee, pluck thee out

Quite from thy house out of the land
of life he shall thee root.

6 The righteous shall it see and fear,
and laugh at him they shall:

7 Lo, this the man is, that did not make GOD his strength at all:

But he, in his abundant wealth,
his confidence did place:

And he took strength unto himself
from his own wickednesse.

8 But I am in the house of God
like to an olive green:

My confidence for ever hath upon God mercy been.

9 And I for ever will thee praise,
because thou hast done this:

I on thy Name will wait for good before thy saints it is.

PSALM LIII.

That there is not a God the fool
doth in his heart conclude:

They are corrupt, their works are vile,
not one of them doth good.

3 The Lord upon the sons of men
from heav'n did cast his eyes,

To see if any one there was,
that fought God, and was wise.

3 They altogether filthy are,
they all are backward gone:

And there is none that doeth good,
no not so much as one.

4 These workers of iniquity
do they not know at all,

That they my people eat as bread
and on God do not call.

5 Ev'n there they wee afraid & stood with trembling all dismayd.

Whereas there was no cause at all,
why they should be afraid.

For God his bones that thee besieg'd hath scattered all abroad.

Thou hast confounded them, for they despised are of God.

6 Let Israels help from Sion come,
when back the Lord shall bring.

His captives, Iacob shall rejoyce,
and Israel shall sing.

PSALM LIV.

Save me, O God, by thy great Name
and judge my by thy strength.

2 My prayer hear, O God, give care unto my words at length.

3 For they that strangers are to me,
do up against me rise:

Oppressours seek my soul and God
set not before their eyes.

4 The Lord my God my helper is,
lo, therefore I am bold,

He taketh part with every one that doth my soul uphold.

5 Unto mine enemies he shall mischief and ill repay,

O for thy truths sake cut them off,
and sweep them clean away,

6 I will a sacrifice to thee
give with free willingness:

Thy Name, O Lord, because it's good with praise I will confesse.

7 For he hath me delivered
from all adversities:

And his desire mine eyes hath seen upon mine enemies.

PSALM LV.

Lord hear my pray'r, hide not thy from my intreating voice: [se I

2 Attend and hear me in my plaint
I mourn and make a noise.

3 Because of th' enemies voice, and for lewd mens oppression great;

Oa me they cast iniquitie,
and they in wrath me hate.

4 Sore pain'd within me is my heart,
deaths terrors on me fall,

- 5 On me come trembling fear & dread And in destructions dungeon dark o'whelmed me withall. at last shalt lay them low.
6 O that I like a dove had wings, The bloody and deceitfull men said I, then would I flee shall not live half their dayes, Far hence, that I might find a place But upon thee with confidence where I in rest might be. I will deede alwayes.
- 7 Lo then far off I wander would
and in the desert stay;
8 From windy storm and tempest I would haste to scape away.
9 O Lord, on them destruction bring,
and to their tongues divide;
For in the city violence,
and strife I have espide.
10 They day and night upon the wall,
do go about it round;
There mischief is, and sorrow there
in midst of it is found.
11 Abundant wickednesse there is within her inward part;
And from her streets deceitfulnesse
and guile do not depart.
12 He was not foe that me reproach'd,
then that endure I could,
Nor hater that did 'gainst me boast,
from him me hide I would.
13 But thou man, who mine equall
& mine acquaintance wast, [guide, 14 We joynd sweet counsels, to Gods
in company we past, [house 15 Let death upon themseife, & down
let them go quick to hell;
For wickednesse doth much abound
among them where they dwell.
16 I'll call on God, God will me save,
17 I'll pray and make a noise
At evening, morning and at noon
and he shall hear my voice.
18 He hath my soul delivered,
that it in peace might be,
From battell that against me was,
for many were with me.
19 The Lord shall hear, & them afflict,
of old who hath abode:
Because they never changes have,
therefore they fear not God.
20 'Gainst those y were at peace with
he hath put forth his hand: [him,
The covenant that he had made,
by breaking he prophand.
21 More smooth then butter were his while in his heart was war; [words,
His speeches were softer then oyl,
and yet drawn sword they are.
22 Cast thou thy burden on the Lord,
and he shall thee sustain;
Yea, he shall cause the righteous man
unmoved to remain.
23 But thou, O Lord, my God, those men
in justice shalt o'rethrow,

P S A L M LVI.

- S Hew mercy, Lord, to me: for man
would swallow me outright:
He me oppresseth while he doth against me dayly fight.
2 They dayly would me swallow up,
that hate me spitefully:
For they be many that do fight against me, O most hie.
3 When I'm afraid, I'll trust in thee:
4 In God I'll praise his word,
I will not fear what flesh can do,
my trust is in the Lord.
5 Each day they wrest my words, their
'gainst me are all for ill, [thoughts

waiting my soul to kill. [steps 7 But shall they by iniquitie escape thy judgement so?
O God with indignation, down
do thou the people throw.
8 My wanderings what they have been thou know'st, their number took.
Into thy bottle put my tears,
are they not in thy book?
9 My foes shall, when I cry, turn back,
I know't, God is for me.
10 In God his word I'll praise, his
in God shall praised be. [word 11 In God I trust, I will not fear
what man can do to me.
12 Thy vows upon me are, O God
I'll render praise to thee.
13 Wilt thou not who from death me
my feet from falls keep free, [fav'd,
To walk before God in the light
of those that living be.

P S A L M LVII.

- B E mercifull to me, O God,
thy mercy unto me
Do thou extend, because my soul
doth put her trust in thee.
Yea, in the shadow of thy wings
my refuge I will place, Untill these sad calamities
do wholly overpasse.
2 My cry I will cause to ascend unto the Lord most hie,
To God, who doth all things for me
perform most perfectly.
3 From heav'n he shall send down, &
from his reproach defend [me

and mercy forth shall send.

4 My soul among fierce lions is,
I firebrands live among.

Mens sons, whose teeth are spears and
a sharp sword is their tongue. [darts,

5 Be thou exalted very high above the heav'ns, O God:

Let thou thy glory be advanc'd
o're all the earth abroad.

6 My soul's bow'd down for they a net
have laid, my steps to snare:
Into the pit which they have dig'd
for me, they fallen are.

7 My heart is fixt, my heart is fixt,
O God, I'll sing and praise.

8 My glory wake wake psaltry, harp:
my self I'll early raise,

9 I'll praise thee 'mong the people,
'mong nations sing will I: [Lord,

10 For great to heav'n thy mercy is,
thy truth is to the sky.

11 O Lord, exalted be thy Name,
above the heav'ns to stand:

Do thou thy glory far advance
above both sea and land.

PSALM LVIII.

D O ye, O congregation
indeed speak righteousness?

O ye that are the sons of men,
judge ye with uprightness:

2 Yea, ev'n within your very hearts
ye wickedness have done:

And ye the violence of your hands
do weigh the earth upon.

3 The wicked men estranged are
ev'n from the very womb:

They speaking lies do stray, as soon
as to the world they come.

4 Unto a serpents poyson like their poyson doth appear:

Yea, they are like the adder deaf,
that closely stops her ear:

5 That so she may not hear the voice of one that charm her would,

No not though he most cunning were,
& charm most wisely could.

6 Their teeth, O God, within their break thou in pieces small: [mouth

The great teeth break thou out, O
of these young lions all. [Lord,

7 Let them like waters melt away,
which downward still do flow:

In pieces cut his arrows all,
when he shall bend his bow.

8 Like to a snail that melts away,
let each of them be gone:

Like womans birth untimely, that ey thnever see the sun.

9 He shall them take away, before your pots the thorns can finde,

Both living, and in fury great,
as with a stormy winde.

10 The righteous when he vengeance
he shall be joyfull then; [fees,

The righteous shall wash his feet
in blood of wicked men.

11 So men shall say, y righteous man
reward shall never misse;

And verily, upon the earth
a God, to judge there is.

PSALM LIX.

M Y God deliver me from those
that are mine enemies:

And do thou me defend from those
that up against me rise.

2 Do thou deliver me from them
that work iniquity;

And give me safety from the men
of bloody cruelty.

3 For lo, they for my soul lay wait,
the mighty do combine

Against me Lord, not for my fault,
nor any sin of mine.

4 They run, and without fault in me
themselves do ready make:

Awake to meet me with thy help,
and do thou notice take.

5 Awake therefore, Lord God of hosts,
thou God of Israel,

To visit Heathen all spare none
that wickedly rebell.

6 At ev'ning they go to and fro,
they make great noise, and sound

Like to a dog, and often walk
about the city round.

7 Behold, thy belch out with their
& in their lips are swords: [mouth,

For they do say to us, who is he
that now doth hear our words?

8 But thou, O Lord, shalt laugh at them
and all the Heathen mock.

9 While he's in pow'r I'll wait on for God is my high rock. [thee,

10 He of his mercy that is God, betimes shall me prevent:

Upon mine enemies God shall let me see mine hearts content.

11 Them slay not, lest my folk forget,
but scatter them abroad [down,

By thy strong pow'r; and bring them
O thou our shield, and God.

12 For their mouths sin, & for the
that from their lips do fly, [words

Let them be taken in their pride,
because they curse and ly.

13 In wrath consume them, them
that so they may not be [consume,

And that in Jacob God doth rule
to th' earths ends let them see.

14 At evening let thou them return, making great noise, and sound
like to a dog, and often walk
about the city round.

15 And let them wander up & down
in seeking food, to eat;
And let them grudge when they shall be satisfi'd with meat. [not 16 But of thy pow'r I'll sing aloud

at morn thy mercy praise:
Forthou to me my refuge wast
and tow'r in troublous dayes.

17 O God that art my strength, I will sing praises unto thee;
For God is my defence, a God
of mercy unto me.

P S A L M L X.

O Lord, thou hast rejected us,
and scattered us abroad,
Thou justly had displeased been,
return to us, O God. [made,

1 The earth to tremble thou hast therein didst breaches make:
Do thou thereof the breaches heal,
because the land doth shake.

3 Unto thy people thou hard things
hast shew'd, and on them sent:
And thou hast caus'd us to drink
wine of astonishment.

4 And yet a banner thou hast given
to them who thee do fear:
That it by them, because of truth
displayed may appear.

5 That thy beloved people may delivered be from thrall;
Save with the pow'r of thy right hand
and hear me when I call.

6 God in his holiness hath spoke,
herein I will take pleasure:
Shechem I will divide, and forth
will Succoths valley measure.

7 Gilead I claime as mine, by right,
Manasseh mine shall be,
Ephraim is of mine head the strength,
Judah gives lawes for me.

8 Moab's my washing-pot, my shoe
I'll over Edom throw:
And over Palestina's land
I will in triumph go.

9 O who is he will bring me to the city fortifi'd?
O who is he that to the land
of Edom will me guide?

10 O God which haddest us cast off,
this thing wilt thou not do?
Ev'n thou, O God, which didest not forth with our enemies go

11 Help us from trouble: for the help is vain which man supplies.

12 Through God wee'll do great acts:
tread down our enemies. [he shall

P S A L M L X I.

O God, give ear unto my cry
unto my pray'r attend.
2 From th' utmost corner of the land
my cry to thee I'll send.

What time my heart is overwhelm'd,
and in perplexity:
Do thou me lead unto the Rock
that higher is then I.

3 For thou hast for my refuge been
a shelter by thy pow'r,
And, for defence against my foes,
thou hast been a strong tow'r.

4 Within thy Tabernacle I
for ever will abide:
And under covert of thy wings
with confidence me hide.

5 For thou the vows that I did make
O Lord, my God, didst hear:
Thou hast given me the heritage of those thy Name that fear.

6 A life prolong'd for many dayes thou to the King shalt give:
Like many generations be the years which he shall live.

7 He in Gods presence, his abod,
for evermore shall have:
O do thou truth and mercy both prepare that may him save.

8 And so will I perpetually
sing praise unto thy Name, That, having made my vows, I may each day perform the same.

P S A L M L X I I.

MY soul with expectation
depends on God indeed;
My strength and my salvation doth
from him alone proceed.

1 He onely my salvation is,
and my strong rock is He:
He onely is my sure defence;
much mov'd I shall not be.

3 How long will ye against a man
plot mischief? ye shall all Be slain, ye like a tottering fence
shall be, and bowing wall.

4 They onely plot to cast him down
from his excellency; [blessed They joy in lies with mouth they
but they curse inwardly.

5 My soul wait thou with patience
upon thy God alone:
On him dependeth all my hope
and expectation.

6 He only my salvation is,
and my strong Rock is He :
He only is my sure defence:
I shall not moved be.
7 In God my glory placed is,
and my salvation sure:
In God the Rock is of my strength,
my refuge most secure.
8 Ye people place your confidence
in him continually :
Before him pour ye out your heart :
God is our refuge hie.
9 Surely mean men are vanitie,
and great men are a lie :
In ballance laid, they wholly are more light then vanitie.
10 Trust ye not in oppression,
in robbery be not vain :
On wealth set not your hearts, when as increased is your gain.
11 God hath it spoken once to me,
yea, this I heard again,
That power to Almighty God alone, do appertain.
Yea mercy also unto thee
belongs, O Lord, alone :
Forthou, according to his work
rewardest every one.

PSALM LXIII.

Lord, thee my God I'll early seek :
my soul doth thirst for thee.
My flesh longs in a dry parcht land,
wherein no water be.
2 That I thy power may behold,
and brightnesse of thy face,
As I have seen thee heretofore,
within thy holy place.
3 Since better is thy love then life,
my lips thee praise shall give.
4 I in thy Name will lift my hands,
and blesse thee while I live.
5 Ev'n as with marrow and with fat,
my soul shall filled be :
Then shall my mouth with joyfull
sing praises unto thee : [lips,
6 When I do thee upon my bed
remember with delight,
And when on thee I meditate
in watches of the night.
7 In shadow of thy wings I'll joy,
for thou mine help hast been.
8 My soul thee follows hard, and me
thy right hand doth sustain.
9 Who seek my soul to spill, shall sink
down to earths lowest room :
10 They by the sword shall be cut off,
and foxes prey become.
11 Yet shall the King in God rejoyce,
and each one glory shall

That swear by him, but stopt shall be the mouth of liers all.

PSALM LXIV.

When I to thee my prayer make,
Lord, to my voyce give ear :
My life save from the enemy
of whom I stand in fear.
2 Me from their secret counsell hide
who do live wickedly ;
From insurrection of those men
that work iniquity. [what,
3 Who do their tongues with malice
and make them cut like swords ;
In whose bent bows are arrows set,
even sharp and bitter words :
4 That they may at the perfect man
in secret aim their shot :
Yea suddenly they dare at him
to shoot, and fear it not.
5 In ill encourage they themselves,
and their snare close to lay,
Together conference they have,
who shall them see ? they say,
6 They have searcht out iniquities,
a perfect search they keep :
Or each of them the inward thought,
and very heart is deep.
7 God shall an arrow shoot at them,
and wound them suddenly.
8 So their own tongue shall them con-
all who them see shall fly. [founds
9 And on all men a fear shall fall ;
Gods works they shall declare :
For they shall wisely notice take what these his doings are.
10 In God y^e righteous shall rejoyce,
and trust upon his might,
Yea, they shall greatly glory all ;
in heart that are upright.

PSALM LXV.

Praise waits for thee in Sion, Lord,
to thee vows paid shall be.
2 O thou that hearer art of pray'r,
all flesh shall come to thee.
3 Iniquities, I must confesse,
prevail against me do :
But as for our transgressions,
them purge away shalt thou.
4 Blest is the man whom thou dost [choose,
and mak' st approach to thee :
That he within thy courts, O Lord,
may still a dweller be :
We surely shall be satisf'd
with thy abundant grace,
And with the goodnesse of thy House,
ev'n of thy holy place.

5 O God of our salvation,
 thou in thy righteousness
 By fearfull works unto our pray'rs
 thine answer doth expresse;
 Therefore the ends of all the earth,
 and those afar that be Upon the sea, their confidence,
 O Lord, will place in thee.
6 Who being girt with pow'r, sets fast,
 by his great strength the hills, 7 Who noise of seas, noise of their
 and peoples tumult stills. [waves 8 Those in y^e upmost parts that dwell
 are at thy signes afraid; Th'outgoings of the mourn and even
 by thee are joyfull made.
9 The earth thou visit'd watring it,
 thou mak'st it rich to grow
 With Gods full flood, thou corn pre-
 when thou provid'st it so. [par'st, 10 Her ridges thou dost water much,
 her furrows settelest;
 With shoures thou dost her mollifie,
 her soring by thee is blest.
11 So thou the year most liberally
 dost with thy goodness crown:
 And all thy paths abundantly
 on us drop fatnesse down.
12 They drop upon the pastures wide,
 that do in deserts ly:
 The little hills on every side
 rejoyce right pleasantly.

 the vales with corn are clad;
 And now they shout and sing to thee,
 for thou hast made them glad.

 and glorious make his praise.

 in all thy works art thou? [thee
 Through thy great pow'r thy foes to 4 All on the earth shall worship thee,

 they shall thy praise proclaim,
 In songs: they shall sing cheerfully unto thy holy Name.

 our foot from sliding stays.

 with incense I will bring;
 Of bullocks and of goats I will

 what he did for my soul.
17 I with my mouth unto him cry'd
 my tongue did him extoll.
18 If in my heart I sin regard,
 the Lord me will not hear:
19 But surely God me heard, and to my prayers voice gave ear.
20 O let the Lord, our gracious God,
 for ever blesse be,
 Who turned not my pray'r from him,
 nor yet his grace from me.

 let people all thee praise.
4 O let the nations be glad,
 in songs their voices raise;
 Thou'lt justly people judge,
 on earth rule nations all.
5 Let people praise thee, Lord, let them praise thee both great and small.

 our God shall blessing send.

 do thou us also blesse:
 And graciously cause shine on us
 the brightness of his face.

Also among the nations all thy saving health be shown.
3 O let the people praise thee, Lord,
let people all thee praise.
4 O let the nations be glad,
and sing for joy always;
Forrightly thou shalt people judge,
and nations rule on earth.
5 Let people praise thee, Lord let all the folk praise thee with mirth.
6 Then shall y^e earth y^eeld her increase,
God, our God blesse us shall.
7 God shall us blesse, and of the earth
the ends shall fear him all.

PSALM LXVIII.

Let God arise, and scattered
let all his enemies be:
And let all those that do him hate
before his presence flee.
2 As smoak is driven, so drive thou
as fire melts wax away, [them]
Before Gods face let wicked men
so perish and decay.
3 But let the righteous be gla
let them before Gods sig h
Be very joyfull, yea let them
rejoyce with all their might.
4 To God sing to his Name sing praise,
extoll him with your voice,
That ride on heav'n by his Name JAH,
before his face rejoyce.
5 Because the Lord a Father is unto the fatherlesse:
God is the widows judge, within
his place of holinesse.
6 God doth the solitary set in families; and from bands
The chain'd doth free, but rebels do inhabit parched lands.
7 O God, what time thou didst go before thy peoples face; [forth]
And when through the great wilder-thy glorious marching was, [refse]
8 Then at Gods presence strock the

This Sinai shook before the Lord,
the God of Israel.
9 O God, thou to thine heritage
didst send a plenteous rain;
Whereby thou when it weary was,
didst it refresh again.
10 Thy congregation then did make their habitation there:
Of thine own goodnesse for the poor,
O God, thou didst prepare.
11 The Lord himself did give y^e world,
the word abroad did spread;
Great was the company of them
the same who published

and forc'd to flee away,
And women, who remain'd at home
did distribute the prey. [pots]

15 Gods hill is like to Bashan hill,
like Bashan hill for hight.
16 Who do ye leap ye mountains high?
this is the hill where God Desires to dwell, yea God in it for ay will make abode.
17 Gods chariots twenty thousand are;
thousands of Angels strong;
In 's holy place God is as in mount Sinai, them among.
18 Thou hast, O Lord, most glorious ascended up on hie.
And in triumph victorious led
captive captivitie;
Thou hast received gifts for men,
for such as did rebel,
Yea, ev'n for them: that God the Lord
in midst of them might dwell.
19 Blesd be the Lord, who is to us
of our salvation God,
Who daily with his benefits
us plenteously doth load.
20 He, of salvation is the God,
who is our God most strong;
And, unto God the Lord from death
the issues do belong.
21 But surely God shall wound y^e head
of those that are his foes:
The hairy scalp of him that still
on in his trespasse goes.
22 God said, my people I will bring again from Bashan hill;
Yea, from the seas devouring deeps,
them bring again I will.
23 That in the blood of enemies
thy foot imbru'd may be;
And, of thy dogs dipt in the same,
the tongues thou mayest see.
24 Thy going, they have seen, O God,
thy steps of Majesty
Of my God, and my mighty King
within the sanctuary.
25 Before went singers, players next
on instruments took way;
And them among the damsels were
that did on timbrels play.

and mercy great, hear me.
14 Deliver me out of the mire,
from sinking do me keep:
Free me from those that do me hate,
and from the waters deep.
15 Let not the flood on me prevail,
whose waters overflows:
Not deep me swallow, nor the pit

that sight may them forsake:
And let their loins be made by thee
continually to shake.
24 Thy fore wrath pour thou out on
and indignation: [them,
And let thy wrathfull anger, Lord,

25 All waste and desolate let be their habitation,
And in their tabernacles all

26 Because him they do persecute, whom thou didst smite before:
They talk unto the grief of those whom thou hast wounded sore.
27 Adde thou iniquity unto their former wickednesse:
And do not let them come at all

be raz'd, and blotted quite,
Among the just and righteous
let not their names be writ.
29 But now, become exceeding poor,
and sorrow full am I:
By thy salvation, O my God,
let me be set on his.

most cheerfully will praise:
And I, in giving thanks to him,
his Name shall highly raise.

Then bullock, ox or any beast
that hath both horn and hoof.

and He will Sion save:
That they may dwell therein, and it
in sure possession have.
36 And they that are his servants seed,
inherit shall the fame:
So shall they have their dwelling there that love his blessed Name.

PSALM LXX.

Lord, haste me to deliver
with speed Lord, succour me.

2 Let them that for my soul do seek,
sham'd and confounded be:
Turn'd back be they and sham'd,
that in my hurt delight.
3 Turn'd back be they, Ha ha that say their shaming to requite.
4 In thee let all be glad,
and joy that seek for thee:
Let them, who thy salvation love,
say still, God praised be.
5 I poor and needy am,
Come, Lord, and make no stay:
My help thou and deliverer art,
O Lord, make no delay.

and joy that seek for thee:
Let them, who thy salvation love,
say still God praised be.
5 But, I both poor and needy am:
come Lord, and make no stay:
My help thou and deliverer art,
O Lord, make delay.

PSALM LXXI.

O Lord, my hope and confidence
is plac'd in thee alone:
Then let thy servant never be put in to confusion.
2 And let me, in thy righteousness,
from thee deliverance have,
Cause me escape, incline thine ear
unto me, and me save.

17 For, even from my youth, O God,
by Thee I have been taught ;
And hitherto I have declar'd
the wonders Thou hast wrought.

18 And now Lord, leave me not, when I
old and gray-headed grow :
Till to this age thy strength, & pow'r,
to all to come I show.

19 And thy most perfect righteous-
O Lord, is very high. [ness,
Who hast so great things done : O God,
who is like unto Thee ?

20 Thou Lord, who great adversities,
and sore to medidst show.
Shalt quicken, and bring me again
from depths of earth below.

21 My greatness, & my pow'r thou increase and far extend : [will
On every side against all grief,
thou wilt me comfort send.

22 Then ev'n thy truth I'll also praise,
my God with psalterie :
Thou holy One of Israel,
with Harp I'll sing to Thee.

23 My lips shall much rejoyce in Thee,
when I thy praises sound :
My soul, which Thou redeemed hast,
in joy shall much abound.

24 My tongue thy justice shall proclaim, all day long : [claim,
For thy confounded are, and sham'd,
that seek to do me wrong.

PSALM LXXII.

O Lord, thy judgement give y King,
his son thy righteousness.
2 With right he shall thy people judge,
thy poore with uprightness.
3 The lofty mountains shall bring forth unto the people peace :
Likewise the little hills the same shall do by righteousness.
4 The peoples poor ones he shall judge
the needies children save :
And those shall he in pieces break
who them oppress'd have.
5 They shall thee fear while sun &

6 Like rain on mown grasse he shall or shewes on earth that fall [drop, 7 The just shall flourish in his dayes,
and prosper in his reign :
He shall, while doth the moon endure,
abundant peace maintain.
8 His large and great dominion shall from sea to sea extend.
It from the river shall reach forth unto earths utmost end.
9 They, in the wilderness that dwell, bowe down before him must :
And they that are his enemies,
shall lick the very dust.
10 The Kings of Tarrish, & the Isles to him shall presents bring ;
And unto him shall offer gifts
Sheba's and Seba's King.
11 Yea, all the mighty Kings on earth
before him down shall fall :
And all the nations of the world
do service to him shall.
12 For he the needy shall preserve
when he to Him doth call ;
The poor also, and him that hath
no help of man at all.
13 The poor man and the indigent
in mercy he shall spare :
He shall preserve alive the souls
of those that needy are.
14 Both from deceit and violence,
their soul He shall set free ;
And in his sight right precious
and dear their blood shall be.
15 Yea, He shall live, and giv'n to Him
shall be of Sheba's gold :
For him still shall they pray, and He shall dayly be extoll'd.
16 Of corn an handfull in the earth
on tops of mountains high,
With prosperous fruit shall shake like in Lebanon that be [trees
The city shall be flourishing,
her citizens abound

12 number shall, like to the grasse
that growes upon the ground.
17 His Name for ever shall endure,
last like the sun it shall:
Men shall be blest in Him and blest
all nations shall Him call,
18 Now blessed is the Lord, our God
the God of Israel,
For He alone doth wondrous works,
in glory that excell.
19 And blessed be his glorious Name
to all eternitie
The whole earth let His glory fill:
Amen so let it be.

PSALM LXXIII.

YEt God is good to Israel,
to each pure hearted one,
2 But as for my steps neer slipt,
my feet were almost gone.
3 For I envious was and grud'gd
the foolish folk to see.
When I perceiv'd the wichef sort
enjoy prosperitie. [firm,
4 For still their strength continueth
their death of bands is free?
5 They are not toll'd as others are:
nor plagu'd as others be:
6 Therefore their pride, like to a chain,
them compasseth about:
And as a garment violence
doth cover them throughout. [have 7 Their eyes stand out with fat they more than their hearts could wish.
8 They are corrupt, their talk of both lewd and loffie is. [wrong, 9 They set their mouth against the
in their blasphemous talk: [heav'ns,
And their reproaching tongue

[throughout the earth at large doth walk.
10 His people oftentimes for this look back and turn about:
Sith waters of so full a cup
to these are poured out.
11 And thus they say, How can it be that God these things doth know?
Or, can there in the Highest be knowledge of things below?

12 Behold, these are the wicked ones,
yet prosper at their will
In worldly things they do increase in wealth and riches still, 13 I verily have done in vain
my heart to purifie:
To no effect in innocence
washed my hands have I.

14 For dayly, and all day throughout great plagues I suffered hays;

Yea, every morning I of new
did chastisement receive.
15 If in this manner foolishly
to speak I would intend,
Thy childrens generation
behold I should offend.
16 When I this thought to know, it to hard a thing for me. [was 17 Till to Gods Sanctuary I went,
then I their end did see.
18 Assuredly thou didst them set
a slippery place upon:
Them suddenly thou castedst down
into destruction.
19 How in a moment: suddenly to ruine brought are they;
With fearfull terrours utterly
they are consum'd away.
20 Ev'n like unto a dream, when one
from sleeping doth arise;
So thou, O Lord, when thou awak'st,
their image shall despise.
21 Thus grieved was my heart in me,
and me my reins oppress.
22 So rude was I, and ignorant,
and in thy sight a beast.
23 Nevertheless continually,
O Lord, I am with thee:
Thou didst me hold by my right hand,
and still upholdest me.
24 Thou with thy counsell while I live
wilt me conduct and guide,
And to thy glory afterward
receave me, to abide.

25 Whom have I in the heavens high but thee, O Lord, alone?
And in the earth, whom I desire beside thee, there is none.
26 My flesh & heart doth faint & fail,
but God doth fail men ever:
For of my heart God is the strength,
and portion for ever.
27 For lo, those that are far from thee,
they quickly perish shall:
Them that a-whoring from thee go,
thou hast destroyed all.
28 But surely it is good for me,
that I draw near to God:
In God I trust, that all thy works
I may declare abroad.

PSALM LXXIV.

O God why hast thou cast us off?
is it for evermore?
Against thy pasture sheep, who doth thine anger sincke so sore?
2 O call to thy remembrance
thy congregation
Which thou hast pruchased of olds
still think the same upon.

The rod of thine inheritance,
which thou redeemest hast,
This Zion hill, wherein thou hadst
thy dwelling in times past.
3 To these long desolations
thy feet lift, do not tarry :
For all the ills thy foes have done
within thy Sanctuary.

4 Amidst thy congregations
thine enemies do roar :
Their ensings they set up, for fight
of triumph, thee before.

5 A man was famous, and was had in estimation
According as he lifted up
like axe thick trees upon.

6 But all that once with axes now
and hammers, they go to,
And down the carved work thereof
they break, and quite undo.

7 They fired have thy Sanctuary,
and have defil'd the same,
By casting down unto the ground,
the place where dwelt thy Name.

8 Thus said they in their heart, Let us destroy them out of hand:
They burnt up all the synagogues
of God, within the land.

9 Our signs we do not now behold:
there is not us among
A prophet more, nor any one
that know the times how long.

10 How long, Lord, shall the enemy
thus, in reproach exclaim;
And shall the adversary thus alwayes blaspheme thy Name ?

11 Thy hand, ev'n thy right hand of [might]
how dost thou thus draw back ?

12 From thy bosome pluck it out for our deliverance sake.

13 For certainly God is my King,
ev'n from the times of old,
Working in midst of all the earth
salvation manifold.

14 The feaby thy great pow'r to part asunder, thou didst make :
And thou the dragons heads, O Lord,
within the waters brake.

15 The Leviathans head thou brake in piece, and didst give him to be meat unto the folk
in wilderness that live.

16 Thou cleve'st fountains & founts,
which did with streams abound :
Thou dry'dst the mighty waters up unto the very ground.

17 Thine onely is the day, O Lord,

thine also is the night;
And thou alone prepared hast
the sun and shining light.

17 By thee the borders of the earth
where set led every where :
The summer and the winter both
by thee created were.

18 That th'enemy reproached hath,
O keep it in record:
And that the foolish people have blasphem'd thy Name, O Lord.

19 Unto the multitude do not thy turtles soul deliver:
The congregation of thy poor
do not forget for ever.

20 Unto thy covenant have respect:
for earths dark places be Full of the habitations
of horrible crueltye.

21 O let not these that be oppress'd
return again with shame :
Let those that poore and needy are give praise unto thy Name.

22 Do thou, O God, arise and plead
the cause that is thine own :
Remember how thou art reproacht
still by the foolish one.

23 Do not forget the voice of those that are thine enemies :
Of those the tumults ever grows
that do against thee rise.

PSALM LXXV.

TO thee, O God, do we give thanks
we do give thanks to thee:
Because thy wondrous works declare thy great Name near to be.

2 I purpose, when I shall receive the congregation
That I shall judgement uprightly render to every one.

3 Dissolved is the land with all that in the same do dwell ;
But I the pillars thereof do bear up and stablish well.

4 I, to the foolish people said,
Do not deal foolishly ;
And unto those that wicked are,
lift not your horn on hie.

5 Lift not your horn on hie nor speak
6 With stubborn neck, but know, That not from East, nor West, nor promotion doth flow. [South]

7 But God is Judge: He puts down and sets another up. [one]

8 For it the hand of God most high of red wine is a cup.
It's full of mixture: he pours forth,
and makes the wicked all

Wring

PSALM LXXVI. LXXVII.

Wring out the bitter dregs thereof,
yea, and they drink them shall.

9 But I, for ever will declare,
I Jacobs God will praise.

10 All horns of lewd men I le cut off,
but just mens horns will raise.

PSALM LXXVI.

I N Judah's land God is well known,
his Name's in Israel great:

1 In Salem in his Tabernacle,
in Zion in his Seat.

3 There arrows of the bow hy brake,
the shield the sword the war.

4 More glorious thou then hills of prey,
more excellent art far. [spoild

5 Those that are stout of heart are they slept their sleep outright;

And none of those their hands did
that were the men of might. [finde,

6 When thy rebuke, O Jacobs Gods,
hath forth against them past.

Their horses and their chariots both were in a dead sleep cast.

7 Thou, Lord, ev'n thou art he that he fear'd, and who in he [should

That may stand up before thy sight,
if once thou angry be?

8 From heav'n thou judgement caus'd [be heard.

the earth was still with fear.

9 When God to judgemēt rose to save all meek on earth that were.

10 Surely the very wrath of man
unto thy praise redounds:

Thou to the remnant of his wrath
wilt set restaming bounds.

11 Vow to the Lord your God & pay,
all ye that near him be

Bring gifts and presents unto Him,
for to be fear'd is He.

12 By him the spirits shall be cut off
of those that Princes are:

Unto the Kings that are on earth
He fearfull doth appeat.

PSALM LXXVII.

U Nta the Lord I with my voice,
I unto God did cry

Ev'n with my voice, and unto me
his ear he did apply.

2 I in my trouble fought the Lord:
my fore by night did run,

And ceased not: my grieved soul
did consolation shun.

3 I to remembrance God did call,
yet trouble did remain:

And overwhelm'd my spirit was whiles I did sore complain.

4 Mine eyes debar'd from rest & sleep,
thou makest still to wake;

My trouble is so great, that I vnable am to speak.

5 The dayes of old to minde I call'd,
and oft did think upon

The times and ages, that are past
full many years agoe.

6 By night my song I call to minde,
and commune with my heart,

My spirit did carefully inquire
how I might ease my smart.

7 For ever will the Lord cast out and gracious be no more?

8 For ever in his mercy gone?
falls his word evermore?

9 Is 't true that to be gracious
the Lord forgotten hath?

And that his tender Mercies He hath shut up in his wrath?

10 Then did I say, that surely this is mine infirmitie.

I le minde the years of the right hand
of Him that is most hie.

11 Yea, I remember will the works
performed by the Lord:

The wonderd done of old by thee,
I surely will record

12 I also will of all thy works
my meditation make,

And of thy doing to discourse
great pleasure I will take.

13 O God, thy way most holy is
within thy Sanctuary:

And what God is so great in pow'r,
as is our God most hie?

14 Thou art y God that wonder do'st
by thy right hand most strong:

Thy mighty pow'r thou hast declar'd,
the nations among.

15 To thine owne people with thine
thou didst redemption bring: [arm

To Jacobs sons and to the Tribes
of Joseph that do spring.

16 The waters, Lord, perceived thee.
the waters saw the well,

And they for fear aside did flie,
the depths on trembling fell.

17 The clouds in water forth were found loudly did the sky [pour'd

And swiftly through y world abroad
thine arrowws fierce did fly.

18 The thunders voice amongst the
a mighry noise did make: [heav'n

By lighthings lightned was the world,
th'earth tremble did and shake.

19 Thy way is in the sea, and in the waters great thy path:

Yet are thy footsteps hid, O Lord,
none knowledg there of hath.

20 Thy people thou didst safely lead
like to a flock of sheep.

By Moses hand and Aarons Thou
didst them conduct and keep.

P S A L M LXXVIII.

At tend my people, to my Law,
thereto give thou an ear:
The words that from my mouth pro-
attentively do hear. [ceed,

1 My mouth shall speake a parable,
and sayings dark of old:

3 The same which we have heard, &
and us our fathers told. [known

4 We also will them not conceal from their posteritie:

Them to the generation
to come declare will we:

The praises of the Lord our God,
and His Almighty strength,

The wondrous works y^e He hath done
we will shew forth at length.

5 His testimony and His law
in Israel he did place,

And charg'd our fathers it to show
to their succeding race.

6 That so y^e grace which was to come,
might well them learn & know,

And sons unborn, who should arise,
might to their sons them show,

7 That they might set their hope in and suffer not to fall [God,

His mighty works out of their minde,
but keep his precepts all.

8 And might not, like their fathers be assid rebellious race.

A race not right in heart, with God whose spirit not stedfast was.

9 The sons of Ephraim, who nor bows
nor other arms did lack,

When as the day of battell was
they faintly turned back

10 Thy brake Gods cov'nant, and rein His commands to go. [saf'd

11 His works & wonders they forgot,
which He to them did show.

12 Things marvellous He brought to their fathers them beheld. [passe,

Within the land of Egypt done,
yea ev'n in Zoans held.

13 By him divided was the sea,
He caus'd them through to passe;

And he the water madeto stand,
that like an heap it was.

14 With cloud by day with light of fire
all night he did them guide

15 In desert rocks lie clave, and drink
as from great depths supply'd.

16 He from the rock brought streams
[like founts

made waters to run down.

17 Yet sinnih more, in desert they provok'd the Highest One.

18 For in their heart they tempted
and speaking with mistrust, [God,
They greedily did meat require to satisfie their lust.

19 Against y^e Lord himself they spake,
and murmuring said thus,

A table in the wilderness
can God prepare for us?

20 Behold, He smote y^e rock & thence came streams and waters great,

But can He give His people bread?
and send them flesh to eat?

21 The Lord did hear & waxed wrath
so kindled was a flame

'Gainst Jacob, and 'gainst Israel
up indignation came.

22 For they believ'd not God, nor trust,
in his salvation had.

23 Though founts above He did com-
and heav'n's doors open made.

24 And Manna rain'd on them & gave them corn of heav'n to eat.

25 Men Angels food did eat, to them
He to the full sent meat.

26 And in the heaven He did cause
the Easterne winde to blow;

And by his power He let out
the Southern winde to go.

27 Then flesh as thick, as dust He made
to rain down, them among;

And feathered fowl, like as the sand
which lyeth y^e shore along. [camp

28 At his command amidst their there shewres of Flesh down fell.

All round about the tabernacles
and tents where they did dwell.

29 So did they eat abundantly,
and had of meat their fill:

For He did give to them wat was their own desire and will.

30 They from their lust had not their heart & their desire, [estrang'd

But while y^e meat was in their mouth,
which they did so require.

31 Gods wrath upon them came, and the fattest of them all; [slew

So that the choise of Israel,
o'rethown by death did fall.

32 Yet notwithstanding of all this,
they sinned still y^e more. [wrought,

And, though He had great wonders
believ'd Him not therefore.

33 Wherefore their dayes in vanity
He did consume and waste.

And

And by His wrath their wretched
away in trouble past, [years

34 But when he flesh them, then they
to seek Him shew desire: [did

Yea they return'd, and after God
right early did inquire.

35 And that the Lord hath been their they did remember then: [Rock,

Even the High Almighty God had their Redeemer been.

36 Yet with their mouth they flatter'd
and spake but faindly, [Him,

And they unto the God of truth
with their false tongues did ly.

37 For, though their words were [good their heart

with Him was not sincere:
Unstedfast and perfidious

they in his covenant were.
38 But full of pury He forgave

their sin, them did not slay:
Nor stir'd up all His wrath, but oft

his anger turn'd away.
39 For that they were but fading flesh

to minde He did recall,
A winde that passeth soon away,

and not returns at all.
40 How often did they Him provoke,

within the wilderness?
And in the desert did Him grieve

with their rebelliousness?
41 Yea, turning back they tempted

and limits set upon, [God,
Him who in midst of Israel is the onely Holy One.

42 They did not call to minde His nor yet the day when He [pow'r, Delivered them out of the hand

of their fierce enemy.
43 Nor how great signes in Egypt land

He openly had wrought,
What miracles in Zoans field

His hand to passe had brought.
44 How lakes and rivers every where

He turned into blood:
So that no man, nor beast could drink

of standing lake or floud.
45 He brought among them swarms

[of flies,
which did them fore annoy,

And divers kindes of filthy frogs
He sent them to destroy.

46 He to the caterpillar gave the fruits of all their soyls

Their labour, He deliver'd up unto the locosts spoil:

47 Their vines with hail, their sycos
He with the frost did blast. [mores

48 Their beasts to hail He gave, their not thunder-bolds did wast, [stocks

49 Fierce burning wrath He on them
and indignation strong [cast,

And troubles sore, by sending forth
ill angels them among. [soul

50 He to his wrath, made way' their from death He did not save;

But over to the pestilence
the lives of them He gave.

51 In Egypt-land the first-born all
He smote down every where:

Amongst the tents of Ham, ev'n the chief of their strength that were,

52 But His own people like to sheep
thence to go forth He made;

And he amidst the wilderness
them, as a flock did lead.

53 And he them safely on did lead,
so that they did not fear:

Whereas their enemies by the sea
quite overwhelmed were.

54 To borders of his Sanctuary
the Lord his people led,

Ev'n to y' moun, which His right hand
for them had purchased.

55 The nations of Canaan
by his Almighty hand

Before their face He did expell
out of their native land.

Which for inheritance to them
by line He did divide,

And made the tribes of Israel
within their tents abide.

56 Yet God most high they did provok
and tempted ever still, [vokes

And to observe His testimonies did not incline their will.

57 But like their fathers turned back,
and dea't unfaithfully:

Aside they turned, like a bow
that shoots deceitfully.

58 For they to anger did provoke
Him with their places hies:

And with their graven images
moov'd Him to jealousy. [wroth;

59 When God heard this He waxed and much loath'd Israel then.

60 So Shilos tent He left, the tent
which He had plac'd with men

61 And He his strength delivered into captivity.

He list his glory in the hand
of his proud enemy.

62 His people also he gave over unto the swords fierce rages

So fore his wrath inflam'd was against his heritage. [young men,

63 The fire consum'd their choise their maids no marriage had.

PSALM LXXIX. LXXX.

- 64 And when their Priests fel by the [sword
their wives no mourning made.
65 But then the Lord arose, as one that doth from sleep awake,
And like a Gyant that by wine
refresht, a shout doth make.
66 Upon his enemies hinder-parts
He made his stroke to fall;
And so upon them he did put
a shame perpetuall.
67 Moreover He the tabernacle
of Joseph did refuse,
The mighty tribe of Ephraim
He would in no wise chuse.
98 But he did chuse Jehudahs tribe
to be the rest above,
And of mount Sion he made choice
which He so much did love, 69 And His His Sanctuary built,
like to a palace high.
Like to the earth which He did found
to perpetuity.
70 Of David, that his Servant was,
He also choice did make;
And even from the folds of sheep
was pleased him to take.
71 From waiting on the ewes with [young,

He brought them forth to feed
Israel, His inheritance,
His people Jacobs seed.
72 So after the integrity of His heart He them fed?
And by the good skill of His hands
them wisely governed.

PSALM LXXIX.

- O God, the heathen entred have thine heritage, by them Defiled is Thy house, on heaps they laid Jerusalem.
2 The bodies of thy Servants they have cast forth to be meat
To rav'nous souls, thy dear saints flesh,
they give to beasts, to eat.
3 Their blood about Jerusalem
like water have they shed:
And there was none to bury them
when they were slain and dead.
4 Unto our neighbours a reproach
most base become are we:
A scorn and laughing-stock to them
that round about us be.
5 How long, Lord shall thine anger last,
wilt thou still keep the same?
And shall thy servant jealousie
burnt like unto a flame?
6 On heathens pour thy fury forth,
that have thee never known.

- And on those kingdoms & thy Name
have never call'd upon.
7 For these are they which Jacob have devoured cruelly,
And they his habitation
have caused waste to ly.
8 Against us minde not former sins,
thy tender mercies show,
Let them prevent us speedily,
for we're brought very low.
9 For thy Names glory help us, Lord who hast our Saviour been:
Deliver us, for thy Names sake,
O purge away our sin.
10 Why say y heathen, where's their let Him to them be known; [God
When these, who shed thy servants
are in our fight o'rethrown. [blood 11 O'er the Prisoners sighs ascend,
before thy sight on his:
Preserve those in thy mighty pow'r
that are design'd to dy.
12 And to our neighbours bosom
it seven-fold rendred be. [cause
Ev'n the reproach wherewith they O Lord, reproached thee. [have 13 So we thy folk, and pasture sheep shall give thee thanks alwayse, And unto Generations all
we will shew forth thy praise.

PSALM LXXX.

- Hear Israels shepherd, like a flock
thou that dost Joseph guide; Shine forth, O thou that dost between the Cherubims abide.
2 In Ephraims and Benjamins,
and in Manasses sight,
O come for our salvation,
stir up thy strength and might.
3 Turn up again, O Lord, our God,
and upon us vouchsafe,
To make thy countenance to shine,
and so we shall be safe.
4 O Lord of hosts, Almighty God,
how long shall kindled be Thy wrath against thy prayers made of thine own folk to thee?
5 Thou tears of sorrow giv'st to them,
instead of bread to eat;
Yea tears instead of drink thou giv'st
to them in measure great.
6 Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours round about:
Our enemies amongst themselves
at us do laugh and flout.
7 Turn us again, O God of hosts,
and upon us vouchsafe
To make thy countenance to shine,
and so we shall be safe.

8 A vine from Egypt brought thou
by thine outstretched hand: [haft,
And thou the heathen out did cast,
to plant it in their land, 9 Before it thou a room didst make,
where it might grow and stand:
Thou causedst it deep root to take,
and it to fill the land.
10 The mountains vall'd were with its
as with a covering: [shade,
Like goodly Cedars were the boughs,
which out from it did spring.
11 Upon the one hand to the Sea,
her boughs she did out fend:
On th'other side unto the flood
her branches did extend. [down 12 Why hast thou then thus broken and rane her hedge away?
So that all passengers do pluck,
and make of her a prey.
13 The Bore who from y forest comes doth waste it at his pleasure:
The wilde beast of the field also devours it out of measure.
14 O God of host we thee beseech
return now unto thine;
Look down from heav'n in love, be-
and visit this thy vine: [hold 15 This vineyard which thine own hath planted us among: [right hand
And that same branch which for thy thou hast made to be strong. [self 16 Burnt up it is with flaming fire,
it also is cut down:
They utterly are perished
when as thy face doth frown.
17 O let thy hand be still upon
the man of thy right hand,
The son of man, whom for thy self thou madest strong to stand.
18 So henceforth we will not go back,
nor turn from thee at all:
O do thou quicken us and we
upon thy Name will call.
19 Turn is again, Lord God of hosts,
and upon us vouchsafe
To make thy countenance to shine,
and so we shall be safe.

PSALM LXXXI.

Sing loud to God, our strength: with
to Jacobs God do sing. [joy
2 Take up a psalm, the pleasant harp, timbrill and psaltry bring.
3 Blow trumpets at new moon, what our feast appointed is: [day
4 For charge to Israel, and a Law
Of Jacobs God was this 5 To Joseph this a testimony
He made, when Egypt-Land

He travell'd through, where speech I
I did not understand. [heard 6 His shoulder I from burdens took,
his hand, from pots did free.
7 Thou didst in trouble on me call,
and I delivered thee:
In secret place of thundering
I did, thee answer make;
And at the streams of Meribah,
of thee a proof did take.
8 O thou my people, give an ear,
I'll testifie to thee:
To thee, O Israel, if thou wilt
but hearken unto me.
9 In midst of thee there shall not be any strange god at all;
Nor unto any god unknown,
thou bowing down shalt fall.
10 I am the Lord thy God, which did
from Egypt-land thee guide:
I'll fill thy mouth abundantly,
do thou it open wide.
11 But yet my people to my voice
would not attentive be;
And ev'n my chosen Israel
he would have none of Me.
12 So to the lusts of their own hearts,
I them delivered:
And then in counsels of their own
they vainly wandered:
13 O that my people had me heard,
Isra'l my waies had chose:
14 I had their enemies soon subdued,
my Hand turn'd on their foes.
15 The haters of the Lord, to Him
submission should have fain'd:
But as for them their time should for evermore remain'd. [have 16 He should have also fed them with the finest of the wheat;
Of hony from the rock, thy fill
I should have made thee eat.

PSALM LXXXVII.

I N gods assembly GOD doth stand,
He judgeth gods among.
2 How lodg, accepting persons vile,
will ye give judgement wrong?
3 Defend the poor and fatherlesse
to poor opprest do right.
4 The poore and needy ones set free,
rid them from ill mens might.
5 They know not, nor will understand,
in darknesse they walk on:
All the foundations of the earth
out of their course are gone.
6 I said that you are gods, and are sons of the Highest all:
7 But ye shall die like men, and as one of the Princes fall.

45 PSALM LXXXIII. LXXXIV. LXXXV.

8 O God, do thou raise up thy self,
the earth to judgement call,
For thou, as thine Inheritance,
shalt take the nations all.

PSALM LXXXIII.

Kep not, O God, wee the intreat,
O keep not silence now,
Do thou not hold thy peace, O God,
and still no more be thou.

- 2 For lo, thine enemies a noise
tumultuously have made;
And they that haters are of thee,
have lifted up the head.
- 3 Against thy chosen people they do crafty counsel take:
And they against thy hidden ones
do consultations make.
- 4 Come let us cut them off, said they,
from being a nation;
That of the name of Israel may
no more be mention.
- 5 For with joynt heart they plot, in against thee they combine. [league,
- 6 The tents of Edom, Ishmaelites, Moabs and Hagars line.
- 7 Gilead and Ammon, Amalek, Philistines, those of Tyre:
- 8 And Asser, oyn'd with them to help
Lots children they conspire.
- 9 Do to then as to Midian,
Jabin at Hifon strand:
- 10 And Sisera, which at Endor fell,
as dung to fat the land.
- 11 Like Oreb, and like Zeeb make their noble men to fall;
Like Zeba, and Zalmanna-like,
make thou their Princes all;
- 12 Who said, For our possession
let us Gods houses take.
- 13 My God, them like a wheel, as chaff
before the winde, them make.
- 14 As fire consumes a wood, as flame
doth mountains set on fire:
- 15 Chase and affright them with the storm and tempest of thine are, [storm
- 16 Their faces fill with shame, O Lord,
that they may seek thy Name.
- 17 Let them confounded be, & vext,
and perish to their shame.
- 18 That men may know that thou to alone doth appertain [whom The Name JEHOVAH, doth most high
o're all the earth remain.

PSALM LXXXIV.

How lovely is thy dwelling-place
O Lord of hosts to me:
The Tabernacles of thy grace
how pleasant, Lord they be:

- 1 My thirsty soul longs vehemently,
yea, saints thy Courts to see;
My very heart and flesh cry out,
O living God, for thee,
- 3 Behold, the sparrow findeth out
an house wherein to rest;
The swallow also for her self
hath purchased a nest;
Ev'n thine owne altars, where she safe
her young ones forth may bring,
O thou Almighty, Lord of hosts,
who art my God and and King,
- 4 Blest are they in thy House y dwell,
they ever give thee praise. [art,
- 5 Blest is the man whose strength thou
in whole heart are thy wayes.
- 6 Who passing through Baca's dry
therein do dig up wells: [vale,
Also the rain that falleth down,
the pools with water fills.
- 7 So they from strength unwearied go
still forward unto strength, Untill in Zion they appear before the Lord at length.
- 8 Lord God of hosts my prayer hear
O Jacobs God, give ear.
- 9 See God our shield, look on the face
of thine anointed deer.
- 10 For in thy Courts one day excells
a thousand, rather in My Gods house will I keep a door,
then dwell in tents of sin.
- 11 For God y Lord's a sun and shield,
Hee'l grace and glory give:
And will withhold no good from that uprightly do live. [them
- 12 O thou that art the Lord of hosts,
that man is truly blest,
Who by assured confidence
on thee alone doth rest.

PSALM LXXXV.

- O Lord, thou hast been favourable
to thy beloved Land:
Jacobs captivity thou hast
recall'd with mighty hand.
- 2 Thou pardoned thy people hast
all their iniquities,
Thou all their trespasses and sins
hast covered from thine eyes.
 - 3 Thou tookst of all thine ire, and [turn'dst
from thy wrath furiousnesse.
 - 4 Turn us God of our health, & cause
thy wrath gainst us to cease.
 - 5 Shall thy displeasure thus endure
against us without end?
Wilt thou to generations all thine anger forth extend?

6 That

- 6 That in thee may thy people joy.
wilt thou not us revive?
- 7 Shew us thy mercy, Lord, to us
do thy salvation give. [speak]
- 8 I'll hear what God, the Lord, will
to His folke He'll speak peace,
And to his saints: but let them not return to foolishnesse.
- 9 To them that fear Him, surely near
is His salvation:
That glory in our land may have
her habitation.
- 10 Truth met with mercy righteous-
and peace kiss'd mutually. [nesse]
- 11 Truth springs from earth & rihhte[ousnesse]
looks down from heaven hie.
- 12 Yea what is good the Lord shall our land shall yeeld increase [gives]
- 13 Justice to set us in His steps,
shall go before His face.

PSALM LXXXVI.

O Lord, do thou bowe down thine
and hear me graciously: [ear,
Because I sore afflicted am,
and am in poverty.

- 1 Because I'm holy, let my soul
by thee preserved be:
- O thou my God, thy servant save that puts his trust in thee,
- 3 Sith unto thee I daily cry,
be mercifull to me.
- 4 Rejoice thy servants soul: for Lord,
I lift my soul to thee.
- 5 For thou art gracious, O Lord,
and ready to forgive,
And rich in mercy, all that call upon thee, to relieve.
- 6 Hear Lord, my pray'r, unto y voice
of my request attend.
- 7 In troubles times, I'll call on thee,
for thou wilt answer send.
- 8 Lord, there is none among the gods
that may with thee compare:
And like the works which thou hast
not any work is there. [done]
- 9 All nations whom thou mad'st, shall
and worship reverently [come Before thy face: and they, O Lord,
thy Name shall glorifie.
- 10 Because thou art exceeding great,
and works by thee are done,
Which are to be admir'd: and thou art God thy self alone.
- 11 Teach me thy way, & in thy truth,
O Lord, then walk will I:
Unite my heart, that I thy Name
may fear continually.
- 12 O Lord my God, with all my heart

- to thee I will give praise:
And I the glory will ascribe unto thy Name alwaies.
- 13 Because thy mercy towards me
in mercy doth excell:
And thou delivered had my soul
out from the lowest hell.
- 14 O God, the proud against me rise,
and violent men have met,
That for my soul have sought: & thou
before them have not fer.
- 15 For thou art full of pity, Lord,
to God most gracious Long-suffering, and in thy truth
and mercy plenteous.
- 16 O turn to me thy countenance,
God mercy on me have:
Thy servant strengthen and the son
of thine own hand-maid save.
- 17 Shew me a sign for good, that they
which do me hate may see,
And be asham'd: because thou, Lord,
didst help and comfort me.

PSALM LXXXVII.

- U Pon the hills of holiness
He His foundation sets
- 2 God more then Jacobs dwellings
delights in Zions gates. [at]
- 3 Things glorious are said of thee,
Thou City of the Lord.
- 4 Rahab and Babel I, to those that know me, will record:
Behold, ev'n Tyrus, and with it
The Land of Palestine,
And likewise Ethiopia:
this man was born therein.
- 5 And it of Zion shall be said,
This man, and that man there.
Was born: and He that is most high himself shall stablish her. [count]
- 6 When God the people writes, He'll that this man born was there.
- 7 There be that sing and play: and all my well-springs in thee are.

PSALM LXXXVIII.

- L Ord God, my Saviour day & night
before thee cry'd have I.
- 2 Before thee let my prayer come,
give ear unto my cry.
- 3 For troubles great do fill my soul:
my life draws nigh the grave.
- 4 I'm counted with those y go down to pit, and no strength have.
- 5 Ev'n free among the dead, like them
that slain in grave do ly,
Cut off from thy hand, whom no more thou hast in memory.

PSALM LXXXIX.

6 Thou hast me laid in lowest pit,
In deeps, and darksome caves.
7 Thy wrath lyes hard on me, thou me prest with all thy waves. [hast
8 Thou hast put far from me my [friends

thou mad'st them abhor me;

And I am so shut up, that I
finde no evasion free.

9 By reason of affliction
mine eye mourns dolefully:

To thee, Lord, do I call and stretch
my hands continually.

10 Wilt thou shew wonders to thy dead
shall they rise and the blesse?

11 Shall in thy grave thy love be told?
in death thy faithfulness?

12 Shall thy great wonders in thy dark or shall thy righteousness

Be known to any in the land
of deep forgetfulness? [pray'r,

13 But, Lord, to thee I cry'd my
at morn prevent shall thee.

14 Thy, Lord, dost thou cast off my [soul?

and hid'st thy face from me?

15 Distrest am I, and from my youth
I ready am to dy;

Thy terrors I have born, and am distracted fearfully.

16 The dreadfull fierceness of thy quite over me doth go: [wrath

Thy terrors great have cut me off,
they did pursue me so.

17 For round about me every day
like water they did rouse:

And, gathering together, they have compassed my soul.

18 My friend thou hast put far from
and him that did me love: [me,

And those thy mine acquaintance were
to darkness didst remove.

PSALM LXXXIX.

Gods mercies I will ever sing,
and with my mouth I shall Thy faithfulness make to be known
to generations all.

2 For mercy shall be built, said I,
for ever to endure;

Thy faithfulness ev'n in the heav'ns
thou wilt establish sure.

9 I with my chosen one have made a covenant graciously?

And to my servants whom I lov'd,
to David sworn have I:

4 That I thy seed establish shall
for ever to remain:

And will to generations all

thy Throne build and maintain.
5 The praises, of thy wonders, Lord,
the heavens shall expresse:
And in the congregation
of saints, thy faithfulness.

9 For who in heaven with the Lord
may once himself compare?
Who is like God among the sons
of those that mighty are?

7 Great fear in meetings of the saints
is due unto the Lord;
And He, of all about Him, should
with reverence be ador'd.

8 O that that art the Lord of hosts,
what Lord in mightiness
is like to thee? who compass round
art with thy faithfulness.

9 Ev'n in the raging of the sea
thou over it dost reign:
And when thy waves thereof do swell,
thou stillest them again.

10 Rahab in pieces thou didst break,
like one that slaughtered is:
And with thy mighty arm thou hast
disperst thine enemies, [thine own

11 The heav'ns are thine, thou for the earth dost also take:
The world and fulness of the same,
thy pow'r did found and make.

12 The North and South from thee
their first beginning had: [alone
Both Tabor mount, and Hermon hill shall in thy Name be glad.

13 Thou hast an arm that's full of thy Hand is great in might: [pow'r,
And thy right hand exceedingly exalted is in height.

14 Justice & judgement of thy Throne
are made the dwelling-place:
Mercy, accompani'd with truth,
shall go before thy face.

15 O greatly blest the people are,
the joyfull found that know:
In brightness of thy face, O Lord,
they ever on shall go,

16 They in thy Name shall all the day
rejoyce exceedingly.
And in thy righteousness shall they exalted be on hy.

17 Because the glory of their strength
doth only stand in thee,
And in thy favour shall our horn
and pow'r exalted be.

18 For God is our defence, and He
to us doth safety bring:
The Holy One of Israel
is our Almighty King.

19 In vision to thy holy one thou saidst, I help upon
A strong one laid; out of the folk
I rais'd a chosen one.

20 Ev'n David, I have found him out
a servant unto Me:

And with my holy oyl My King
anointed him to be. [be,

21 With whom my hand shall stablish
mine arm shall make him strong.

22 On him the foe shall not exalt,
nor son of mischief wrong.

23 I will beat down before his face
all his malicious foes:

I will them greatly plague, who do with hatred him oppose.

24 My mercy, and my faithfulness
with him yet still shall be:

And in my Name his horn and pow'r,
men shall exalted see.

25 His hand & pow'r shall reach afar,
I'll set in the sea:

And his right hand established shall in the rivers be.

26 Thou art my father, he shall cry,
thou art my God alone:

And he shall say, Thou art the rock
of my salvation.

27 I'll make him My first-born more than Kings of any land: [high

28 My love I'll ever keep for him,
My cov'nant fast shall stand.

29 His seed by My power will make
for ever to endure:

And as 7 days of heav'n, his Throne
shall stable be and sure.

30 But if his children shall forsake,
My Lawes, an: go astray,

And in my judgement shall not walk,
but wander from My way.

31 If they my Lawes break, & do not keep my Commandements.

32 I'll visit then their faults with rods,
their sins with chastisements.

33 Yet I'll not take My love from nor promise I did make: [him,

34 My cov'nant I'll not break, nor [change

what with my mouth I spake.

35 Once by my Holiness I sware:
to David I'll not ly.

36 His seed and throne shall as the son
before Me last for ay.

37 It like the moon shall ever be established fastly,

And like to that which in the heav'n

doth witness faithfully.

38 But thou displeased, hast cast off,
thou didst abhor and loath:

With him that thine anointed is thou hast been very wroth.

39 Thou hast thy servants covenant made void and quiet cast by,

Thou hast profan'd his crown, while it cast on the ground doth ly. [down

40 Thou all his hedges hast broke his strong holds down hast torn,

41 He to all passers by a spoil,
to neighbours is a scorn.

42 Thou hast set up his foes right
mad'st all his enemies glad. [hand,

43 Turnst his sword edge & him to in battell hast not made. [stand

44 His glory thou hast made to cease,
his throne to ground down cast:

45 Shortned his dayes of youth & him
with shame thou covered hast.

46 How long, Lord, wilt thou hide
for ever in thine ire? [thy self

And shall thine indignation
burn like unto a fire?

47 Remember, Lord, how short a time
I shall on earth remain:

O wherefore is it so, that thou hast made all men in vain?

48 What man is he that liveth here,
and death shall never see?

Or from the power of the grave
what man his soul shall free?

49 Thy former loving kindnesses,
O Lord, where be they now?

Those which in truth & faithfulness
to David sworn hast thou.

50 Munde, Lord, thy servants sad re-hear I in bosome bear, [proach:

The scorning of the people all who strong and mighty are.

51 Wherewith the raging enemies
reproach'd, O Lord think on.

Wherewith they have reproach'd the
of thine anointed one. [steps

52 All blessing to the Lord, our God, let be ascribed then:

For evermore so let it be,
Amen, yea, and Amen.

PSALM XCI.

3 Thou dost un o destruction
man that is mortall turn:
And unto them thou say'st again
ye sons of men return.
4 Because a thousand years appear
no more before thy sight
Then yesterday when it is past, or then a watch by night.
5 As with an overflowing flood
thou carriest them away:
They like a sleep are, like the grasse
that grows at morn are they.
6 At morn it flourisheth and growes,
cut down at ev'n doth fade;
7 For by thine anger we consume
thy wrath makes us afraid.
8 Our sins thou and iniquities
doth in thy presence place,
And set our secret faults before
the brightnesse of thy face.
9 For in thine anger all our dayes
do passe on to an end;
And, as a tale that hath been told,
so we our years do spend.
10 Threescore & ten years do somme
our dayes and years we see: [up Or if by reason of more strength
in some fourescore they be:
Yet doth the strength of such old men
but grief and labour prove:
For it is soon cut off, and we fly hence, and soon remove.
11 Who knowes the power of thy according to thy fear: [wrath?
12 So is thy wrath, Lord teach thou us
our end in mind to bear:
And so count our dayes, that we
our hearts may still apply
To learn thy wisdom and thy truth,
that we may live thereby.
13 Turn yet again to us, O Lord,
how long thus shall it be?
Let it repent thee now for those that servants are to thee.
14 O which thy tender mercies, Lord,
us early satisfie:
So we rejoyce shall all our dayes,
and full be glad in thee.
15 According as the dayes have been wherein we grief have had.
And years wherein we ill have seen,
so do thou make us glad 16 O let thy works and pow'r appear thy servants face before:
And shew unto the children dear
thy glory evermore.
17 And let the beauty of the Lord
our God be us upon:
Our bandie-works establish thou,
establish them each one,

PSALM XCI.

HE that doth in the secret place
of the most High reside.
Under the shade of Him, that is
th' Almighty shall abide.
2 I of the Lord, my God will say,
He is my refuge still
He is my fortresse, and my God,
and in him trust I will.
3 Assuredly He shall thee save,
and give deliverance
From subtle fowlers snare, and from the noysome pestilence.
4 His feathers shall thee hide thy trust
under His wings shall be:
His faithfulness shall be a shield
and buckler unto thee.
5 Thou shalt not need to be afraid
for terrours of the night,
Nor for the arrow that doth fly
by day, while it is light:
6 Nor for the pestilence, that walks
in darknesse secretly.
Nor of destruction that doth waste
at noon-day, openly,
7 A thousand at thy side shall fall,
at thy right hand shall ly
Ten thousand dead, yet unto thee,
it shall not once come nigh.
8 Only thou with thine eyes shalt look;
and behold be:
And thou therein the just reward
of wicked men shall see.
9 Because the Lord, who constantly
my refuge is alone,
Even the most High is made by thee
thy habitation.
10 No plague shall neer thy dwelling
no ill shall thee befall: [come,
11 For thee to keep in all thy waies,
His Angles charge He shall.
12 They in their hands shall bear thee
still waiting thee upon: [up Left thou at any time should dash
thy foot against a stone.
13 Upon the adder thou shalt tread,
and on the Lyon strong:
Thy feet on Dragons trample shall,
and on the Lions young:
14 Because on me he set his love,
I'll save, and set him free:
Because My great Name he hath
I will him set on high. [known 15 He'll call on me, I'll answer him,
I will be with him still,
In trouble to deliver him,
and honour him I will.
16 With length of daies unto his minde
I will him satisfie:

I also

I also my salvation
will cause his eyes to see.

PSALM XCII.

TO render thanks unto the Lord
it is a comely thing,
And to thy Name, O thou most High
due praise aloud to sing,
1 Thy loving kindeſſe to ſhow forth
when ſhines the morning light:
And to declare thy faithfulneſſe,
with pleaſure every night:
2 On a ten ſtringed inſtrument,
upon the Pſaltery:
And on the harp, with ſolemn ſound
and grave-ſweet melody. [word, 4 For thou, Lord by thy mighty haſte made my heart right glad:
And I will triumph in the works
which by thine hand were made.
5 How great Lord, are thy works?
of thine a deep it is: [each thought 6 A brutiſh man it knoweth not,
fools underſtand not this.
7 When thoſe y^e lewd & wicked are,
ſpring quickly up like graſſe,
And workers of iniquity
do flouriſh all apace.
It it that thy for ever may
deſtroyed be and ſlain:
8 But thou, O Lord, art the moſt High
for ever to remain.
9 For lo, thine enemies, O Lord,
thine enemies periſh ſhall:
The workers of iniquity
ſhall be diſperſed all.
10 But thou ſhalt, like unto the horn
of th'unicorn, exalt,
My horn on high: thou with freſh oyl
anoint me alſo ſhalt.
11 Mine eye ſhall alſo my deſire
ſee on mine enemies:
Mine ears ſhall of the wicked hear,
that do againſt me riſe.
12 But like the palm-tree, flouriſhing
ſhall be the righteous one;
He ſhall like to the Cedar grow
that is in Lebanon.
13 Thoſe that within y^e houſe of God
are planted by his grace,
They ſhall grow up and flouriſh all in our Gods Holy place.
14 And in old age, when others fade,
thy fruit ſtill forth ſhall bring,
They ſhall be fat, and full of ſap
and ay be flouriſhing.
15 To ſhew that upright is the Lord,
He is a rock to me:
And He from all unrighteouſneſſe
is altogether free.

PSALM XCIII.

THe Lord doth reign, & cloth'd to
with majeſty moſt bright: [He His works do ſhew him cloth'd to be,
and girt about with might.
The word is alſo ſtabliſhed,
that it cannot depart.
2 Thy Throne is fixt of old, and thou from everlaſting art.
3 The floods, O Lord, have lifted up,
they lifted up their voice:
The floods have lifted up their waves,
and made a mighty noiſe.
4 But yet the Lord, that is on high,
is more of might by far,
Then noiſe of many, waters is,
or great Sea-billows are.
5 Thy teſtimonies, every one,
in faithfulneſſe excell:
And holineſſe for ever, Lord,
thine Houſe becometh will.

PSALM XCIV.

O Lord, God, unto whom alone
all vengeance doth belong,
O mighty God, who vengeance own'ſt,
thine forth avenging wrong.
2 Lift up thy ſelf, thou of the earth
the Sovereign Judge thou art,
And unto thoſe that are ſo proud
a due reward impart.
3 How long, O mighty God, ſhall they who lewd and wicked be,
How long ſhall they who wicked are thus triumph haughtily?
4 How long ſhall things moſt hard by be uttered and told [them
And all that work iniquity
to boaſt themſelves be hold?
5 Thy folk they break in pieces, Lord,
thine heritage oppreſſe:
6 The widow they and ſtranger ſlay,
and kill the fatherleſſe
7 Yet ſay they, God it ſhall not ſee, nor God of Jacob know.
8 Ye brutiſh people underſtand,
fools, when wiſe will ye grow?
9 The Lord did plant the ear of man and hear then ſhall not He?
He onely form'd the eye, and then
ſhall he not clearly ſee?
10 He that the nations doth correct,
ſhall He not chaſtiſe you?
He know ledge unto man doth teach,
and ſhall himſelf not know?
11 Mens thoughts to be but vanity,
ſhe Lord doth well diſcern.

- 12 Blest is γ man thou chastest, Lord,
and mak' γ thy Law to learn.
- 13 That thou may' γ give him rest
of sad adversitie. [from dayes Untill the pit be dig'd for those that work iniquitie.
- 14 For sure the Lord will not cast off
those that his people be, Neither His own inheritance
quit and forsake will He.
- 25 But judgement unto righteousness
shall yet return again.
And all shall follow after it
that are right-hearted men.
- 16 Who will rise up for me, against
those that do wickedly?
Who will stand up for me, 'gainst that work iniquity? [those
- 17 Unlesse γ Lord had been my help,
when I was fore opprest.
Almost my soul had in the house
of silence been at rest.
- 18 When I had uttered this word,
My foot doth slip away,
Thy mercy help me up, O Lord,
thy goodness did me stay.
- 19 Amidst the multitude of thoughts,
which in my heart do fight,
My soul, lest it be overcharg'd,
thy com' forts do delight.
- 20 Shall of iniquity the throne
have fellow ship with thee
Which mischief cunningly contriv'd,
doth by a law decree? [joyn,
- 21 Against the righteous souls they they guiltlesse bloud condemn:
- 22 But of my refuge God's the rock,
and my defence from them.
- 23 Of them their own iniquity
the Lord shall bring and lay,
And cut them off in their own sin,
our Lord God shall them slay.

P S A L M XCV.

- O Come, let us sing to the Lord,
come, let us every one,
A joyfull noise make to the Rock
of our salvation.
- 2 Let us before His presence come,
with praise and thankfull voyce:
- Let us sing Psalms to Him with grace,
and make a joyfull noise.
- 3 For God, a great God & great King,
above all gods He is.
- 4 Depths of the earth are in His hand
the strength of hills is His.
- 5 To him the spacious sea belongs,
for He the same did make:
The dry land also from His hands
its from at first did take.

- 6 O come, and let us worship Him
let us bowe down withall,
And on our knees before the Lord,
our maker, let us fall.
- 7 For He's our God, the people we
of his own pasture are,
And of His hand the sheep; to day
if ye His voyce will hear.
- 8 Then harden not your heart, as in the provocation.
As in the desert off the day
of the temptation.
- 9 When me your fathers tempt'd, and
and did my working see: [prov'd,
- 10 Ev'n for the space of forty years
this race hath grieved Me;
I said, This people erres in heart,
My wayes they do not know;
- 11 To whom I sware in wrath that to My rest they should not go.

And unto all the people shew

which blinded nations fear'd
But our God is the Lord, by whom the heav'ns created were.
- 6 Great honour is before his face,
and majesty divine:
Strength is within his holy place,
and there doth beauty shine.

of people every tribe,
Glory do you unto the Lord,
and mighty pow'r ascribe.
- 8 Give ye the glory to the Lord
that to His Name is due:
Come ye into his Courts and bring an offering with you.

O do the Lord adore:
Likewise let all the earth throughout the world shall stedfastly

Be fixt from moving, He shall judge
the people righteously.

Approach with joy His courts unto:
Praise, laud, and blesse his Name al-

For why? the Lord our God is good,
His mercy is for ever sure:
His truth at all times firmly stood,

2 With wisdom to a perfect way shall my behaviour be,
O when in kindnesse unto me,
wilt thou be plafd to come?
I with a perfect heart will walk
within my house, at home.
3 I will endure no wicked thing
before mine eyes to be:
I hate their work that turn aside,
it shall not cleave to me
4 A stubborn a froward heart,
depart quite from me shall:
A person giv'n to wickednesse
I will not know at all 5 I'll cut him off that slandereth
his neighbour privily:
The haughty heart I will not hear,
Nor him that looketh high.
6 Upon the faithfull of the land mine eyes shall be, that they May dwell with me: he shall me serve that walks on perfect way.
7 Who of deceit a worker is,

in my house shall not dwell;
And in my presence shall he not remain, that lies doth tell.
8 Yea, all the wicked of the land,
early destroy will I:
All from Gods city to cut off,
that work iniquity.

P S A L M C I I.

O Lord, unto my pray'er give ear,
my cry let come to thee:
2 And in the day of my distress,
hide not thy face from me:
Give ear to me, what time I call,
to answer me make haste,
3 For as on earth my bones are burnt,
my dayeshike smoke do waste,
4 My heart within me smitten is,
and it is withered,
Like very grasfe so that I do
forget to eat my bread,
5 By reason of my groaning voice,
my bones cleave to my skin:
6 Like Pelikan in wilderness
forsaken I have been:
I like an owl in desert am,
that mightily there doth moan
7 I watch and like a sparrow am
on the house-top alone,
8 My bitter enemies all the day
reproaches cast on me:
And being mad at me with rage,
against me sworn they be, 9 For why, I ashes eaten have,
like bread, in sorrows deep;
My drink I also mingled have
with tears: hat I did weep.
10 Thy wrath and indignation
did cause this grieve and pain
For thou hast lift me up on high,
and cast me down again,
11 My daies are like unto a shade,
which doth declining passe:
And I am dry'd and withered,
ev'n like unto the grasfe.
12 But thou, Lord, everlasting art,
and thy remembrance shall Continually endure, and be
to generations all 13 Thou shalt arise, and mercy have upon thy Zion yet:
The time to favour her is come,
the time that thou hast set, 14 For in her rubbish, and her stones
thy servants pleasure take,
Yea, they the very dust thereof
do favour, for her sake.
15 So shall the heathen people fear
the Lords most Holy Name: And

And all \S Kings on Earth shall dread
thy glory and thy fame.

16 When Zion by the mighty Lord,
built up again shall be,

In Glory then, and Majesty
to men appear shall He,

17 The prayer of the destitute
he surely will regard,

Their prayers will he not despise,
by him it shall be heard.

18 For generations yet to come,
this shall be on record:

So shall the people, that shall be created. Praise the Lord.

19 He from his Sanctuaries height
hath down ward cast his eye,

And from his glorious Throne in the Lord \S earth did spy: [heav'n,

20 That of the mornfull prisoner
the groanings he might hear,

To set them free that unto death
by men appointed are:

21 That they in Zion may declare
the praises of the same:

And publish in Jerusalem
the praises of his fame?

22 When as the people gather shall
in troups with one accord,

When Kingdoms shall assembled be to serve the highest Lord.

23 My wanted force and strength he abated in the way [hath

And he my dayes hath shortened:

24 Thus therefore did I say,
My God, in mid-time of my dayes,

take thou me not away:
From age to age eternally

thy years endure and stay.

25 The firm foundation of the earth
of old time thou hast laid.

The heavens also are the work which thine own hands have made.

26 Thou shalt for evermore endure,
but they shall perish all:

Yea, every one of them wax old,
like to a garment, shall:

Thou as a vesture shall them change,
and they shall changed be.

27 But Thou \S same art and thy years
are to eternitie.

28 The children of thy servants shall continually endure.

And in thy sight, O Lord, their seed
shall be establishd sure.

And withered like to grasse doth

I am forgetfull grown therefore

To take and eat my daily bread.

And voice of my most grievous

My flesh consumed is, my skin

The Owl in deserts I do match.

7 And Sparrow like companion lesse,
Upon the houses top I match.

8 I all day long am made a scorn,
Reproach'd by my malicious foes:

The mad men are against me [sworn

The men against me that arose,

9 For I have ashes eaten up,
To me as if they had been bread:

And with me drink I in my cup
Of bitter tears a mixture made.

10 Because thy wrath was not ap,
And dreadfull indignation, [pear'd

Therefore it was that thou me

And thou again didst cast me down.

11 My dayes, are like a shade away
Which doth declining swiftly passe

And I am withered away
Much like unto the fading grasse.

12 But thou, O Lord, shalt still endure
From change and all mutation free,

And, in all generations, sure shall thy remembrance ever be.

thou to mount Zion shalt extend:

Unto the needies humble pray'rs.

Th' afflicteds pray'r he will not scorn

And generations yet unborn

Shall praise and magnifie the Lord.

Assemble all to praise the Lord.

My dayes of life be shortened.

24 My God, O take me not away
in mid-time of my dayes, I said :
Thy years throughout all ages last.

25 Of old thou hast established
The earths foundation firm & fast :
Thy mighty hands the heav'ns have [made,

26 They perish shall as garments do,
But thou shalt evermore endure :
As vestures thou shalt change them so,
And thy shall all be changed sure.

27 But from all changes thou art free,
Thy endlesse years do last for ay.

Establish'd shall before thee stay.

And from the enemies cruell hand
to them redemption gave

not one was left alive, [foes, 12 Then they believ'd his word, and to him in songs did give. [praise 13 But soon did they his mighty works forget unthankfully.
And on his counsell and his will
did not wait patiently.
14 But much did lust in wildernesse,
and God in desert tempt 15 He gave them what they sought, their soul he leanneffe sent. [but to 16 And against Moses, in the camp,
their envy did appear.
At Aaron they, the saint of God,
envious also were.
17 Therefore y^e earth did open wide,
and Dathan did devoure,
And all Abirams company
did cover in that hour.
18 Likewise among their company
a fire was kindled then
And so the hot consuming flame
burnt up these wicked men 19 Upon the hill of Horeb, they
and idol calf did frame,
A molten image they did make,
and worshipped the same.
20 And thus their Glory & their God,
most vainly changed they
Into the likenesse of an ox
that eateth grasse or hay.
21 They did forget the mighty God,
that hath their Saviour been;
By whom such great things brought
they had in Egypt seen. [to passe 22 In Hams land he did wondrous things terrible did he, [works;
When he his mighty hand and arm
stretcht out at the Red-sea.
23 Then said he, he would them de-
had not his wrath to slay, [stroy.
His chosen Moses stood in breach,
that them he should not slay.
24 Yea, they despis'd the pleasant land,
believed not his word:
25 But in their tents they murmured,
not hearkning to the Lord.
26 Therefore in desert, them to slay
he lifted up his hand:
27 'mong nations to o'rethrow their
and scatter in each land. [seed, 28 They unto Baal-peor did themselves associat:
The sacrifices of the dead
they did profanely eat.
29 Thus by their lewd inventions,
they did provoke his ire:

And

And then, upon them suddenly
 the plague brake in as fire.
 30 Then Phinehas rose, & justice did,
 and so the plague did cease:
 31 This to all ages counted was
 to him for righteousness.
 32 And at y waters where they strove,
 they did him angry make,
 In such sort, that it fared ill
 with Moses for their sake.
 33 Because they there his spirit meek
 provoked bitterly.
 So that he uttered with his lips
 words unadvisedly.
 34 Nor, as y Lord commanded them,
 did they the nations slay:
 35 But with y heathen mingled were,
 and learn'd of them their way, 36 And they their idols serv'd which a snare un-orthem turn: [did 37 Their sons and daughters they to in sacrifice did burn. [devils
 38 In their own childrens guiltlesse [b'oud
 their hands they did embrew, Whom to Chanaan's idols they
 for sacrifices flew,
 So was the land desill'd with blood:
 39 They stain'd with their own
 And with their own inventions [way,
 a whoring they did stray.
 40 Against his peop e kindles was the wrath of God therefore,
 In so much that he did his own inheritance abhorre.
 41 He gave them to y heathens hand,
 their foes did them command:
 42 Their enemies them oppress, they made subject to their hand. [were 43 He many times deliver'd them,
 but with their counsel, so They him provok'd, tha' for their sin
 they were brought very low.
 44 Yet their affliction he beheld,
 when he did hear their cry:
 45 And he for them his Covenant
 did Call-o-memory:
 After his mercies multitude
 46 He d.d repent, And made Them to be pity'd of all those who them did captive lead.
 47 O Lord our God us save, & gather
 the heathen from among,
 That we thy holy Name may praise
 in a triumphant song.
 48 Bless'd be JEHOVAH, Israels God
 to all eternitie.
 Let all the people say, Amen.
 Praise to the Lord give ye.

PSALM CVII.

Praise God, for he is good, for still his mercies last'ing be. [he 1 For Gods redeem'd say so, whom from th' enemies hand did free:
 3 And gathered them our of y lands,
 from North, South, East & West
 4 They stray'd in deserts pathlesse
 no city found to rest. [way,
 5 For thirst & hunger in them faints
 6 their soul. When straits them presse
 They cry unto the Lord, and he
 them freed from their distresse.
 7 Them also in a way to walk,
 that right is, he did guide.
 That they might to a city go,
 wherein they might abide.
 8 O that men to the Lord would give praise, for his goodnesse, then,
 And for his works of wonders done
 unto the sons of men.
 9 For he the soul that onging is doth fully satisfy,
 With goodnesse he the hungry soul
 doth fill abundantly.
 10 Such as shut up in darknesse deep,
 and in deaths shade abide,
 Whom strongly hath affliction bound,
 and irons fast have ty'd.
 11 (Because against the word of God
 they wrought rebelliously,
 And they the counsell did contemn,
 of him that is most hie)
 12 Their heart he did bring down with they fell, no help could have. [grief, 13 In trouble then they cry'd to God,
 he them from straits did save.
 14 He out of darknesse did them [bring,
 and from deaths shade them take;
 These bands wherewith they had been asunder quite he brake [bound 15 O that men to y Lord would give
 praise, for his goodnesse then,
 And for his works of wonder done
 unto the sons of men, 16 Because the mighty gates of brass
 in pieces he did tear,
 By him in sunder also cut
 the bars of iron were.
 17 Fools for their sin, & their offense,
 do sore affliction bear. [abhor,
 18 All kinde of meat their souls
 they to deaths-gates draw near.
 19 In grief they cry to God, he saves them from their miseries. [them 20 He sends his word them heals, and from their destruction frees.

21 O that men to γ Lord would give
praise for his goodnesse then,
And for his works of wonder done
unto the fons of men.
22 And let them sacrifice to him
off'rings of thankfulness,
And let them shew abroad his works,
in songs of joyfulness.
23 Who go to sea in ships, and in great waters trading be, [works, 24 Within the deep these men Gods
and his great wonders see.
25 For he commands, & forth in haste
the stormy tempest flies,
Which makes the Sea with rowling
aloft to swell and rise. [waves 26 They mount to heav'n, then to γ
they do go down again, [depths
Their soul doth faint, and melt away
with trouble and with pain.
27 They reel and stagger like one
at their wits end they be; [drunk, 28 Then they to God in trouble cry,
who them from straits doth free.
29 The storm is chang'd into a calm,
at his command and will.
So that the waves that rag'd before,
now quiet are and still.
30 Then are they glad, because at rest
and quiet now they be.
So to the haven he them brings
which they desir'd to see.
31 O that men to γ Lord would give
praise, for his goodnesse then,
And for his works of wonder, done
unto the fons of men.
32 Among the people gathered,
let them exalt his Name;
Among assembled Elders spread
his most renowned fame.
33 He to dry land turns water-springs,
and floods to wilderness;
34 For sins of those that dwell therein
fat lands to barrennesse.
35 The burnt & parched wilderness,
to water-pools he brings.
The ground that was dry'd up before
he turns to water-springs.
36 And there, for dwelling, he a place
doth to the hungry give,
That they a city may prepare communiously to live.
37 There sow they fields & vineyards
to yeeld fruits of increase. [plant, 38 His blessing makes them multiply,
let not their heafts decrease.
39 Again they are diminished,
and very low brought down,
Through sorrow and affliction,
and great oppression,

40 He upon Princes pours contempt,
and causeth them to stray
And wander in a Wilderness,
wherein there is no way.
41 Yet setteth he the poor on high
from all his miseries;
And he, much like unto a flock,
doth make him families.
42 They γ are righteous shall rejoyce,
when they the same shall see
And, as ashamed, stop her mouth shall all iniquity.
43 Who so is wise, & will these things
observe, and them record, Ev'n they shall understand the love
and kindnesse of the Lord.

PSALM CVIII.

MY heart is fixt, Lord, I will sing,
and will thy glory praise.
2 Awake up psaltery and harp,
my self I'll early raise.
3 I'll praise thee 'mongst the people,
'mong nations sing will I. [Lord,
4 For above heav'n thy mercie's great,
thy truth doth reach the sky.
5 Be thou above the heavens, Lord,
exalted gloriously:
Thy glory all the earth above
be lifted up on high.
6 That those who thy beloved are delivered may be:
O do thou save with thy right hand,
and answer give to me.
7 God in his holinesse hath said,
Herein I will take pleasure.
Shechem I will divide, and forth
will Succoths valley measure.
8 Gilead I claim as Mine by right,
Manasseh mine shall be,
Ephraim is of my Head the strength,
Judah gives laws for me.
9 Moab's My washing-por, My shoe,
I'll over Edom throw,
Over the land of Palestine
I will in triumph go.
10 O who is he will bring me to
the City fortifi'd:
O who is he that to the land
Of Edom will me guide?
11 O God, thou who hadst cast us off,
this thing wilt thou not do:
And wilt not thou, ev'n thou, O God,
forth with our armies go?
12 Do thou from trouble give us help,
for helpless is mans aid.
13 Through God we shall do valiantly,
our foes He shall down tread.

PSALM CIX.

O Thou the God of all my praise,
do thou not hold thy peace:
3 For

2 For mouths of wicked men, to speak
against me, do not cease:
The mouth of vile deceitfull men against me opened be:
And with a false and lying tongue
they have accused me.
3 They did beset me round about
with words of hatefull spight:
And though to them no cause I gave,
against me they did fight.
4 They for my love became my foes,
but I me set to pray.
5 Evil for good, hatred for love
to me they did repay.
6 Set thou the wicked over him,
and upon his right hand
Give thou his greatest enemy,
ev'n Satan, leave to stand.
7 And when by thee he shall be judg'd,
let him condemned be:
And let his pray'r be turn'd to sin,
when he shall call on thee.
8 Few be his dayes, and in his room
his charge another take.
9 His children let be fatherlesse,
his wife a widow make.
10 His children let be vagabonds,
and beg continually:
And from their places desolate
seek bread for their supply.
11 Let covetous extortioners catch all they heap away;
Of all for which he labour'd hath let strangers make a prey.
12 Let there be none to pity him,
let there be none at all
That on his children fatherlesse,
will let his mercy fall.
13 Let his posterity from earth
cut off for ever be,
And in the following age their name
be blotted out by thee.
14 Let God his fathers wickednesse
still to remembrance call;
And never let his mothers sin
be blotted out at all.
15 But let them all before the Lord
appear continually.
That He may wholly from the earth
cut off their memory.
16 Because he mercy minded not,
but persecuted still,
The poor and needy, that he might
the broken-hearted kill.
17 As he in cursing pleasure took,
so let it to him fall;
As he delighted not to blesse,
so blesse him not at all.
18 A cursing he like cloaths put on,
into his bowels so

Like water, and into his bones
like oyl down let it go.
19 Like to that garment let it be which doth himself aray,
And for a girdle wherewith he is girt about alway.
20 From God let this be their reward
that enemies are to me,
And their reward that speak against my soul maliciously.
21 But do thou, for thine own Names
O God the Lord, for me: (sake Sith good and sweet thy mercy is,
from trouble set me free,
22 For I am poor and indigent,
afflicted sore am I,
My heart within me also is wounded exceedingly.
23 I passe like a declining shade,
am like the locusts toft.
24 My knees through fasting weakned
my flesh hath fatnesse lost. (are, 25 I also am a vile reproach unto them made to be:
And they that did upon me look,
did shake their heads at me.
26 O do thou help and succour me,
who art my God and Lord:
And, for thy tender mercies sake,
safety to me afford.
27 That thereby they may know, that is thy almighty hand, (this
And that thou Lord, hast done y same they may well understand. (Lord 28 Although they curse with spite, yet
blesse thou with loving voice:
Let them asham'd be, when they rise
thy servant let rejoyce.
29 Let thou mine adversaries all
with shame be clothed over,
And let their own confusion
them as a mantle, cover.
30 But as for me, I with my mouth
will greatly praise the Lord;
And I among the multitude
His praises will record.
31 For he shall stand at his right hand
who is in poverty.
To save him from all those y would condemn his soul to dy.

PSALM CX.

THE Lord did say unto my Lord,
Sit thou at my right hand,
Untill I make thy foes a stool,
whereon thy feet may stand.
2 The Lord shall out of Sion send
the rod of thy great pow'r:
In midst of all thine enemies,
be thou the Governour.

3 A willing people, in thy day
of pow'r, shall come to thee,
In holy beauties, from morns womb:
thy youth like dew small be.
4 The Lord himself hath made an oath,
and will repent him never,
Of th' order of Melchisedek
thou art a Priest for ever.
5 The glorious and mighty Lord,
that sits at thy right hand,
Shall, in his day of wrath, strike
Kings, that do him withstand.
6 He shall among the heathen judge,
He shall with bodies dead
The places fill, o're many lands,
He wound shall every head.
7 The brook that runneth in the way
with drink shall him supply:
And for this cause, in triumph he shall lift his head on hie.

PSALM CXI.

P Raife ye the Lord, with my whole
I will Gods praise declare, (heart,
Where the assemblies of the just,
and congregation are. [God 2 The whole works of the Lord our
are great above all measure, Sought out they are of every one,
that do therein take pleasure.
3 His works most honourable is,
most glorious and pure,
And his untainted Righteousnesse
for ever doth endure.
4 His works most wonderfull He hath made to be thought upon:
The Lord is gracious and He is full of compassion.
5 He giveth meat unto all those
that truly do him fear;
And evermore His covenant
He in His minde will bear.
6 He did the power of His works
unto His people shew,
When He the heathens heritage
upon them did bestow.
7 His handy-works are truth & right:
all His commands are sure.
8 And done in truth & uprightnesse,
they evermore endure.
9 He sent redemption to His folk,
His covenant for ay
He did command: Holy His Name
and reverend is alway, 10 Wisdoms beginning is God fear;
good understanding they Have all, that his commands fulfill;
His praise endures for ay.

PSALM CXII.

P Raife ye the Lord, The man is blest
that fears the Lord aright,
He who in his commandements
doth greatly take delight.
2 His seed and off spring powerfull
shall be the earth upon;
Of upright men blessed shall be the generation.
3 Riches and wealth shall ever be within his house in store:
And His unspotted righteousness
endures for ever more.
4 Unto the upright light doth rise,
though he in darkness be:
Compassionate and mercifull,
and righteous is he.
5 A good man doth his favour shew
and doth to others lend,
He with discretion his affairs
will guide unto the end.
6 Surely there is not anything
that ever shall him move;
The righteous mans memoriall
shall everlasting prove.
7 When he shall evil tidings hear,
he shall not be afraid;
His heart is fixt, his confidence
upon the Lord is laid.
8 His heart is firmly stablished,
afraid he shall not be,
Untill upon his enemies
he his desire shall see.
9 He hath dispers'd, giv'n to the poor,
his righteousness shall be To ages all; with honour shall his horn be raised high.
10 The wicked shall it see, and fret,
his teeth gnash, melt away:
What wicked men do most desire shall utterly decay.

PSALM CXIII.

P Raife God: ye servants of y Lord,
O praise, the Lords Name praise.
2 Yea, blessed be the Name of God
from this time forth alwayes.
3 From rising Sun, to where it sets,
Gods Name is to be praif'd,
4 Above all nations God is high,
'bove Heav'n His glory rais'd.
5 Unto the Lord, our God, that dwells
on high, who can compare?
6 Himself that humbleth things to see in heav'n and earth that are.
7 He from the dust doth raise y poor,
that very low did ly,
And from the dung-hill lifts the man
oppress'd with poverty:
8 That

and with the Princes set,
With those that of his people are,

He maketh, and to be
Of sons a mother full of joy.
Praise to the Lord give ye.

And by His pow'r did turn the flint into a water-spring.

PSALM CXV.

Not unto us, Lord, not to us,
but do thou glory take Unto thy Name, ev'n for thy truth,
and for thy mercies sake.

where is their God now gone?

He will them surely blesse.

Gods praise do not record.

18 But henceforth we for ever will,
blesse God, Praise ye the Lord.

PSALM CXVI.

I Love the Lord, because my voyce
and Prayers he did hear.

1 I, while I live, will call on Him,
who bow'd to me His ear.

2 Of death the cords, & sorrows did
about me compasse round,

The pains of hell took hold on me,
I grief and trouble found.

4 Upon the Name of God, the Lord,
then did I call, and say,

Deliver thou my soul, O Lord,
I do thee humbly pray.

PSALM CXVII.

- O Give ye praise unto the Lord,
all nations that be ;
Like wife, ye people all accord
His Name to magnifie.
2 For great to us-ward ever are
His loving kindnesses:
His truth endures for evermore,
The Lord, O do ye blesse.

PSALM CXVIII.

- O Praise the Lord, for He is good:
His mercy lasteth ever.
2 Let those of Israel now say,
His mercy faileth never.
3 Now let the house of Aaron say,
His mercy lasteth ever.
4 Let those y^e fear the Lord now say,
His mercy faileth never.
5 I in distresse call'd on the Lord:
the Lord did answer me,
He in a large place did me set:
from trouble made me free.

I will not be afraid:
For any thing that man can do

His statutes are inclin'd:
And who do seeke the living God
with their whole heart & minde.

CAP. H. The 11 part.

81 My soul for thy salvation fain'ts:
yet I thy word believe.

82 Mine eyes fail for thy word: I say,
When wilt thou comfort give?

83 For like a bottle I'm become,
that in the smoke is set;

I'm black and parcht with grief, yet I

84 How many are thy servants dayes?
when wilt thou execute

Just judgements on these wicked men
that do me persecute?

85 The proud have digged pits for me,
which is against thy Laws.

86 Thy works also faithfull are: help

the dawning, and did cry:

For all my expectation

148 Mine eyes do rimously prevent the watches of the night.

That in thy word, with careful minde,

Yet from thy testimonies pure

for they keep not thy word.
159 See how I love thy Law: as Thou

160 From the beginning all thy word
hath been most true and sure:
Thy righteous judgements every one

SCHIN. The 21 part.

161 Princes have persecuted me,
although no cause they saw;
But still of thy most holy Word
my heart doth stand in aw.
162 I at thy word rejoyce, as one of spoil that finds great store.
163 Thy law I love, but lying all

to give due praise to thee:
Because of all thy judgement, Lord,

168 Thy testimonies and thy laws
I kept, with special care:

TAV. The 22 part.

169 O let my earnest pray'r and cry

176 I like a lost sheep went astray,
thy servant seek, and finde:
For thy commands I suffered not to slip out of my minde.

PSALM CXX.

I N my distresse to God I cry'd,
and he gave eare to me.
2 From lying lips & guilefull tongue,
O Lord, my soul let free.
3 What shall be given thee? or what
be done to thee false tongue?
4 Ev'n burning coals of juniper,
sharp arrows of the strong.
5 Wo's me, that I in Mesch am a sojourner so long,
That I in tabernacles dwell
to Kedar that belong.
6 My soul with him that hateth peace
hath long a dweller been.
7 I am for peace: but when I speak for battell they are keen.

PSALM CXXI.

I To the hills will lift mine eyes,
from whence doth come mine aid,
1 My safety cometh from the Lord,
who heav'n & earth hath made.
2 Thy foot Hee'll not let slide, nor will he slumber that thee keeps:
3 Behold, He that keeps Israel,
He slumbers not, nor sleeps.
4 The Lord thee keeps, the Lord thy

6 The Lord shall keep thy soul, he shall preserve thee from all ill:

God keep for ever will.

PSALM CXXII.

I Joy'd, when to the house of God
go up, they said to me.
1 Jerusalem, within thy gates
our feet shall standing be.
2 Jerusalem as a city is compactly built together, 3 Unto that place the tribes go up,
the tribes of God go thither,
To Israels testimony, there
to Gods Name thanks to pay.
4 For thrones of judgement ev'n the of Davids house there stay (thrones 5 Pray that Jerusalem may have peace and felicitie:
6 Let them that love thee and thy peace,
have still prosperitie.
7 Therefore I wish that peace may still within thy wals remain,

And

And ever may thy palaces prosperitie retain.

- 8 Now for my friends, and brethrens
peace be in thee, I'll say: (sake, 9 And for the house of God, our Lord,
I'll seek thy good alway.

PSALM CXXIII.

O Thou that dwellest in the heav'ns
I lift mine eyes to thee.

- 2 Behold, as servants eyes do look
their masters hand to see,
As hand-maids eyes her mistresse
so do our eyes attend, (hand,
Upon the Lord our God, untill
to us he mercy send.
3 O Lord, be gracious to us,
unto us gracious be:
Because replenisht with contempt exceedingly are we.
4 Our soul is fill'd with scorn of those that at their ease abide,
And with the insolent contempt
of those that swell in pride.

PSALM CXXIV.

H Ad not y Lord been on our side,
may Israel now say:

- 2 Had not the Lord been on our side,
when men rose us to slay: (as 3 They had us swallow'd quick, when their wrath 'gainst us did flame:
4 Waters had cover'd us, our soul
had sunk beneath the stream.
5 Then had the waters, swelling high,
even our soul made way.
6 Blest be y Lord, who to their teeth
us gave not for a prey.
7 Our soul's escaped, as a bird
out of the fowlers snare:
The snare asunder broken is,
and we escaped are.
8 Our sure, and allsufficient help
is in Jehovahs Name:
His Name, who did the heav'n create,
and who the earth did frame.

Another of the same.

- N Ow Israel
may say, and that truly,
If that the Lord
had not our cause maintain'd:
2 If that the Lord
had not our right sustain'd
When cruell men
against us furiously
Rose up in wrath,
to make of us their prey.
3 Then certainly
they had devour'd us all,

And swallowed quick,
for ought that we could deeme:

- Such was their rage,
as we might well esteeme:
4 And as fierce floods
before them all things drown,
So had they brought
our soul to death quite down.
5 The raging streams,
with their proud swelling wares,
Had then our soul
o'whelmed in the deep:
6 But blest be God,
who doth us safely keepe
And hath not given us for a living prey Unto their teeth
and bloody cruelty.
7 Even as a bird
out of the fowlers snare
Escapes away,
so is our soul set free:
Broke are their nets,
and thus escaped we.
8 Therefore our help
is in the Lords great Name,
Who heav'n and earth
by his great pow'r did frame.

PSALM CXXV.

T Hey, in the Lord that firmly trust,
shall be like Zion hill,
Which at no time can be remov'd,
but standeth ever still.

- 2 As round about Jerusalem
the mountains stand alway,
The Lord his folk doth compasse so

Left righteous men stretch forth their

thy goodnesse, Lord, impart,
And do thou good to those that are on Israel peace shall stay.

PSALM CXXVII.
E Xcept the Lord do build the house,

Except the Lord the city keep,
the watchmen watch in vain.
2 It's vain for you to rise betimes,
or late from rest to keep,
To feed on sorrows bread, so gives

3 Lo, children are Gods heritage,

4 The sons of youth as arrows are,

They unashamed, in the gate

2 My voice, Lord, do thou hear:
Unto my supplications voice,

3 Lord, who shal stand, if thou, O Lord

8 And from all his iniquities
he Israel shall redeem.

PSALM CXXVIII.

PSALM CXXIX.

2 Oft did they vex me from my youth,

3 The plowers plow'd upon my back,
they long their furrows drew.

where he may make abode:
A place of habitation
for Jacobs mighty God.

PSALM CXXXIII. CXXXIV. CXXXV. 75

6 Lo, at the place of Ephratah

And let all those that are thy saints

10 For thine own servant Davids sake,

Nor of thine own anointed One

11 The Lord in truth to David swore,
He will not turn from it,

Their children then shall also sit,

PSALM CXXXIII.

on Zion his descend:
For there the blessing God commands,
life that shall never end.

PSALM CXXXIV.

Behold, blesse ye the Lord, all ye
that his attendants are,
Ev'n you that in Gods Temple be,
and praise him mightily there.

1 Your hands within Gods holy place
lift up, and praise his Name.
3 From Zion hill the Lord thee blesse,
that heav'n and earth did frame.

3 Praise ye the Lord, for he is good,
unto him praises sing:
Sing praises to his Name, because it is a pleasant thing.
4 For Jacob to himself the Lord
did choose of his great pleasure,
And he hath chosen Israel
for his peculiar treasure.
5 Because I know assuredly,
the Lord is very great,
And that our Lord, above all gods,
in glory hath his seat.
6 What things soever pleas'd the Lord,
that in the heav'n did he,
And in the earth, the seas, and all the places deep that be.

Concerning those that do him serve

all that on them rely.

O Aarons family. [God,

PSALM CXXXVII

BY Babels streams we sat, & wept,
when Zion we thought on.

- 2 In midst thereof we hang'd our
the willow-trees upon. (harps 3 For there a song required they who did us captive bring:
Our spoilers call'd for mirth, and said,
A song of Zion sing.
4 O how the Lords song shall we sing
within a forrain land?
5 If thee Ierusalem I forget,
skill part from my right hand.
6 My tongue to my mouth rooflet
if I do thee forget (cleave
Ierusalem, and thee above
My chief joy do not set.
7 Remember Edoms children, Lord,
who in Ieruselems day,
Ev'n unto its foundation
raze, raze it quite, did say.
8 O daughter thou of Babylon
near to destruction, Blest shall he be that thee rewards,
as thou to us hast done.
9 Yea, happy surely shall he be,
thy tender little ones
Who shall lay hold upon, and them
shall dash against the stones.

PSALM CXXXVIII

THee will I praise with all my heart,
I will sing praise to thee.

- 2 Before the gods: And worship will toward thy sanctuarie.
I'll praise the name, ev'n for thy truth
and kindnesse of thy love:
For thou thy word hast magnifi'd
all thy great Name above.
3 Thou didst me answer in the day
when I to thee did cry:
And thou my fainting soul with didst strengthen inwardly. (strength

with gladnesse they shall sing:
For great's the Glory of the Lord,
who doth for ever reign.
6 Though God be high, yet he respects
all those that lowly be:
Whereas the proud and lofty ones,
afar off knoweth He.
7 Though I in midst of trouble walk:
I life from thee shall have,
Gainst my foes wrath thou'lt stretch

thy right hand shall me save.
8 Surely that which concerneth mee,
the Lord will perfect make:
Lord, still thy mercy lasts, do not thine own hands works forsake.

PSALM CXXXIX

O Lord, thou hast me searcht &

- 2 Thou knowest my sitting down,
And rising up: yea all my thoughts
afar to thee are known.
3 My footsteps, and my lying down
thou compassst always:
Thou also most intirely art
acquaint with all my wayes.
4 For in my tongue, before I speak,
not any word can be,
But altogether, lo, O Lord,
it is well known to thee.
5 Behinde, before, thou hast beset,
and laid on me thy hand.
6 Such knowledge is too strong for too high to understand. (me.
7 From thy spirit whither shall I go?
or from thy presence fly?

there, if in hell I ly.

10 Ev'n there, Lord, shall thy hand
thy right hand hold shall me :

11 If I do say that darknesse shall
me cover from thy sight,

Then surely shall the very night,
about me be as light.

12 Yea, darknesse hideth not from thee,
but night doth shine as day :

Woe thee the darknesse and the light
are both alike alway.

13 For thou possessedst haft my rains,
and thou hast covered me,

When I within my mothers womb
inclosed was by thee.

14 Thee will I praise, for fearfully and strangely made I am : [well

Thy works are marvelous, & right
my soul doth know the same.

15 My substance was not hid from when as in secret I (thee,

Was made, and in earths lowest parts
was wrought most curiously.

16 Thine eyes my substance did be-yet being unperfect, (hold,

And in the volume of thy book
My members all were writ,

Which after in continuance
were fashion'd every one,

When as they yet all shapelesse were,
and of them there was none.

17 How precious also are thy thoughts,
O gracious God, to me ?

And in their summe how passing great and numberlesse they be ?

18 If I should count them, then the they more in number be : (sland

What time soever I awake,
I ever am with thee.

19 Thou Lord wilt sure the wicked
hence from me bloody men. (slays

20 Thy foes against thee lewdly speak,
and take thy Name in vain,

21 Do not I hate all those, O Lord,
that hatred bear to thee ?

With those that up against thee rise
can I but grieved be ?

my foes I them do hold. (heart,

23 Search me, O God, & know my try me, my thoughts unfold ;

24 And see if any wicked way
there be at all in me :

And in thy everlasting way
to me a leader be.

P S A L M CXL.

Lord, from the ill & froward man
give me deliverance,

And do thou safe preserve me, from the man of violence.

2 Who in their heart mischievous are meditating ever : (things

And they for war assembled are continually together.

3 Much like unto a serpents tongue
their tongues they sharp do make

And underneath their lips there lyes,
the poison of a snake. (hands,

4 Lord, keep me from the wicked
from violent men me save ;

Who utterly to overthrow
my goings purpos'd have.

5 The proud for me a snare have hid,
and cords, yea they a net

Have by the wayside for me spread,
they gins for me have set.

6 I said unto the Lord, thou art
my God ; unto the cry

Of all my supplications,
Lord, do thine eare apply.

7 O God the Lord, who art the strength
of my salvation.

A covering in the day of war
my head thou hast put on.

8 Unto the wicked man, O Lord, ⁷
his wishes do not grant,

Nor further thou his ill device,
lest they themselves should vaunt

9 As for the head and chief of those about that compass me,

Ev'n by the mischief of their lips :
let thou them covered be.

10 Let burning coals upon them fall,
them throw in fiery flame,

And in deep pits, that they no more
may rise out of the same.

11 Let not an evil-speaker be on earth established :

Mischief shall hunt the violent man
till he be o'returned.

12 I know God will th'afflicted cause,
maintain, and poor mens right.

13 Surely the just shall praise thy name,
th'upright dwell in thy sight.

P S A L M CXLI.

O Lord, I unto thee do cry,
do thou make hast to me,

And give an eare unto my voice,
When I cry unto thee.

2 As incense let my prayer be directed to thine eyes :

And the uplifting of my hands
as th'evening-sacrifice.

3 Set, Lord, a watch before my mouth,
keep of my lips the door.

4 My heart incline thou not unto,
the ills I should abhorre,

To practise wicked works with men
that work iniquity :

And

And with their delicates my taste
let me not satisfy.

§ Let him that righteous is me smite,
it shall a kindnesse be:

Let him reprove, I shall it count
a precious oyl to me:

Such smiting shall not break my head:
for yet the time shall fall,

When I in their calamities to God pray for them shall.

6 When as their judges down shall be in stonie places cast,

Then shall they hear my words, for shall sweet be to their taste: (they

7 About the graves devouring mouth,
our bones are scatt' red round.

As wood, which men do cut & cleave,
lies scattered on the ground.

8 But unto thee, O God the Lord,
mine eyes uplifted be,

My soul do not leave destitute,
my trust is set on thee.

9 Lord, keep me safely from the snare,
which they for me prepare,

And from the fable grins of them,
that wicked workers are.

10 Let workers of iniquity
into their own nets fall,

While I do by thine help escape
the danger of them all.

PSALM CXLII.

I With my voice cry'd to the Lord,
with it made my request:

2 Pour'd out to him my plaint, to him
my trouble I express. (sp'rit,

3 When in me was o'rwhelm'd my
then well thou knew'est my way:

Where I did walk, a snare for me
they privily did lay.

4 I look'd on my righthand, & view'd,
but none to know me were;

All refuge failed me, no man
did for my soul take care.

5 I cry'd to thee, I said, thou art
my refuge, Lord, alone;

And in the land of those that live
thou art my portion

6 Because I am brought very low,
attend unto my cry;

Me from my persecuters save,
who stronger are then I.

7 From prison bring my soul, that I thy Name may glorifie:

The just shall compass me, when thou
with me dealest bounteously.

PSALM CXLIII.

I Ord, hear my pray'r, attend my
and in thy faithfulness (suite

Give thou an answer unto me,
and in thy righteousness.

2 Thy servant also bring thou not in judgement to be tri'd:

Because no living man can be in thy sight justify'd.

3 For th' enemy hath pursu'd my soul,
my life to ground down tread;

In darkness he hath made me dwell,
as who have long been dead:

4 My spirit is therefore overwhelm'd
in me, perplexedly:

Within me is my very heart
amazed wondrously.

5 I call to minde the dayes of old,
to meditate I use,

On all thy works; upon the deeds
I, of thy hands do muse.

6 My hands to thee I stretch; my soul
thirsts, as dry land, for thee.

7 Haste, Lord, to hear, my spirit failes,
hide not thy face from me;

Left like to them I do become,
that go down to the dust.

8 At morn let me thy kindness hear,
for in thee do I trust:

Teach me the way that I should walk
I lift my soul to thee.

9 Lord, free me from my foes, I fly
to thee, to cover me.

10 Because thou art my God, to do thy will do me instruct:

Thy spirit is good, me to the land
of uprightness conduct.

11 Revive, and quicken me, O Lord,
ev'n for thine own Names sake:

And do thou, for thy righteousness,
my soul from trouble take.

12 And of thy mercy slay my foes:
let all destroyed be

That do afflict my soul, for I a servant am to thee.

Another of the same.

O H, hear my prayer, Lord,
And unto my desire

To bowe thine ear accord
I humbly thee require:

And in thy faithfulness,
Unto me answer make.

And in thy righteousness
Upon me pity take.

2 In judgement enter not
With me thy servant poor:

For why, this well I wot,
No sinner can endure

The sight of thee, O God,
If thou his deeds shalt try,

He dare make none abode
Himself to justify.

PSALM CXLIV. CXLV.

- Behold the cruell foe
Me persecutes with spight,
My soul to overthrow:
Yea, he my life down quite Unto the ground hath smote.
And made me dwell full low
In darknesse, as forgot,
Or men dead long ago.
- Therefore my spirit much vext O'rewhelm'd is me within;
My heart right fore perplext,
And desolate hath bin.
Yet I do call to minde
What ancient dayes record,
Thy works of every kinde
I think upon, O Lord.
- Lo, I do stretch my hands
To thee my help alone,
For thou well understandst
All my complaints and mone:
My thirsting soul desires,
And longeth after thee,
As thirstie ground requires
With rain refresh't to be.
- Lord, let my pray'r prevail,
To answer it makespeed,
For lo, my spirit doth faile
Hide not thy face in need,
Lest I be like to those
That do in darknesse sit,
Or him that downward goes,
Into the dreadfull pit.
- Because I trust in thee,
O Lord, cause me to hear
Thy loving kindnesse free,
When morning doth appear:
Cause me to know the way
Wherein my path should be,
For why my soul on hy
I do lift up to thee.
- From my fierceemie
In safety do me guide,
Because I say to thee,
Lord, that thou mayest me hide.
- My God alone art thou,
Teach me thy righteousnesse:
Thy sp'rits good, lead me to The land of uprightnesse.
- O Lord, for thy Names sake,
Be pleas'd to quicken me:
And for thy truth forth take My soul from miserie.
- And of thy grace destroy
My foes, and put to shame
All who my soul annoy:
For I thy servant am.

PSALM CXLIV.

- Blessed ever be the Lord,
who is my strength and might,

- Who doth instruct my hands to war,
my fingers teach to fight.
- My goodnesse, fortresse, my high deliverer, and shield, [tow'r,
In whom I trust, who under me
my people make to yeeld.
- Lord, what is man that thou of him
doest so much knowledge take?
Or son of man that thou of him,
so great account dost make?
- Man is like vanity: his dayes,
as shadows passe away.
- Lord, bow thy heav'ns, come down [touch thou
the hills, and smoke shall they Cast forth thy lightning, scatter [them;
thine arrows shoot them rout. [save,
Thine hand send from above, me
from great depth draw me out,
And from y hand of children strange.
- Whose mouth speaks vanity:
And their right hand is a right hand
that works deceitfully.
- A new song I to thee will sing,
Lord, on a psalterie:
I, on a ten string'd instrument,
will praises sing to thee.
- Ev'n he it is, that unto Kings
salvation doth send:
Who his own servant David doth
from hurtfull sword defend.
- O free me from strange childrens [hands,
whose mouth speaks vanity:
And their right hand a right hand is,
that works deceitfully.
- That as the plants our sons may be in youth grown up that are:
Our daughters like to corner-stones
carv'd like a palace fair.
- That to afford all kinde of store
our garners may be fill'd: [streets
That our sheep thousands, in our ten thousands they may yeeld.
- That strong our oxen be for work,
that not inbreaking be,
Nor going out, and that our streets
may from complaints be free.
- Those people blessed are, who be in such a cause as this.
Yea, blessed all those people are,
whose God JEHOVAH is.

PSALM CXLV.

- I'll thee extoll my God, O King,
I'll blesse thy Name alwayes;
Then will I blesse each day, & will thy Name for ever praise.

Great is the Lord, much to be prais'd:
his greatnesse search exceeds.

With songs of praise they shall extoll
thy perfect righteousness.

8 The Lord is very gracious,
in him compassions flow,

In mercy he is very great,
and is to anger slow.

9 The Lord JEHOVAH unto all
his goodnesse doth declare;

And over all his other works

Holy, in his works all.

Another of the same.

O Lord, that art my God and King,

Thy wondrous works I will record.

6 By men the might shall be extold
Of all thy mercifull acts, O Lord;

And I thy greatnesse will unfold.

7 They utter shall abundantly

The memory of thy goodnesse great:
And shall sing praises cheerfully,

Whil'ft they thy righteousness relate.

8 The Lord our God is gracious, Compassionate is he also,

In mercy he is plenteous,

But unto wrath and anger slow.

O're all his works his mercy lo.

10 Thy works all praise to thee afford:
Thy Saints, O Lord, thy Name shal

And thou in season due dost send Sufficient food them to relieve.

16 Yea, thou thine hand dost open
And every thing dost satisfie [wide,

That lives, & doth on earth abide,
Of thy great liberalitie.

And holy in his works each one.

Who call in truth on him alone.

19 God will the just desire fulfill
of such as do him fear and dread:

Their cry regard, & hear will he,
And save them in y^e time of need.

23 The Lord preserves all more & lesse,
That bear to him a loving heart:

For workers of all wickednesse
Destroy will he, & clean subvert.

To speak the praises of the Lord:
To magnifie his holy Name,

PSALM CXLVII.

Praise ye the Lord: for it is good praise to our God to sing:
For it is pleasant and to praise
it is a comely thing.
2 God doth build up Jerusalem:
and he it is alone
That the dispers'd of Israel
